9 Punchboard has convinced in the few starts he has made. Has won eleven of 18 starts and shown a high minimum level. Seasonal debut now, but the reports are good and in this small field he finds a nice attacking position early on. 4 Blu Warlock has not won very often, but was matched in tough companies as a 3-year-old. 1 Global Freeway put in a strong finish last time and won easily. One of few horses who has shown fine form lately. 3 Herkules A'lir showed nice resources for this class last year and is good for this field.

10 Eld Donna looked nice, apart from a gallop on the home stretch last time. With that run under her belt, she will be improved. She showed really good capacity as a 3-year-old. Early choice in this field. 9 Stjärne Jerva won a mediocre race last time, but she made a big impression and above all she avoided a mistake. Early choice again. 2 Färsta Flamma has shown increasing form. Nice draw and has not missed the podium in three starts together with Henrik Svensson. 4 Olsims Elise has galloped on the way to several nice results towards the end. Normally in the mix here.

6 Lando Mearas has an interesting task in this seasonal debut. The five-year-old has faced top-class horses throughout his career and often done well straight after a layoff (won two out of four). Quick starter and hard to beat from the front. 7 Chestnut is a strong opponent and comes in better form than several of his main rivals. Can do it tough. 3 August Zonett is in top form and he could be an outsider with the right journey. 5 Eclipse As is gifted but did not always convince last season. Gets a defensive trip in this seasonal debut?

3 Önas Tindra finished well as second behind a superior Credityuan in the last race. She has raced eight times without a win in the lead , but she is in fine form and competes barefoot again. Early pick even if she prefers to attack from behind. 2 A Last Chance is good for this class and comes from the Pihlström stable. Lilius likes to drive the six-year-old. Barefoot behind now. 6 Fralissa Ridge is capable and will compete barefoot straight away - certainly well prepared. 8 My Memphis has a tough starting position but made a nice seasonal debut and should be much better now.

8 Global Fidelity showed good capacity for the former trainer. After an autumn and winter in Wäjersten's training it will be exciting to see the fast-footed five-year-old in his debut. Seasonal debut but she is certainly well prepared. 2 Judy Zet has not convinced so far but should have been improved during the winter. Is used to tougher conditions and early contender straight away. 4 Candy Laday is not bad for this class. Stable in fine form and a better performance is expected here. 11 Lejo is much better than the latest results show. Barefoot for the first time ever.

Will fight for victory. 12 Pyseidon made a really strong and convincing seasonal debut. He is too good for this class and should pass many opponents despite this starting position, 2 Permin has shown good capacity but is a bit hard to predict after a long layoff. 4 Sol Flamma has two wins in a row and should not be overlooked.
