6 Michigan Bro won easily from the lead in the last race and he really likes that position. Could reach the front again and from there he will not be easy to defeat. 3 Cameron Hills comes from a strong effort and should be seen as the biggest threat to our pick. 5 Fawaz Mil has a tricky starting number and as it is his seasonal debut too, he could also need this race. 2 De Chambeau makes an exciting and interesting debut for trainer André Eklund.

4 Xanthis Jojo has won two of the last three starts. She was a scratch due to an injury at the beginning of February but is now back on track and we can expect a good performance straight away. 1 Excellent Cleaning is in absolutely top form. Strong second spot behind impossible Danville last time and could now score the first win of the year. 8 Gogo has not started since November and got a tricky starting position. The filly should be followed anyway. 3 Sommarflörten is a quick starter and leads the race for a long time.
