3 Najade Quesnoy won easily from the lead in the debut and could reach the front again here. In that case she is the horse to beat. 5 Mon's Red Wing could finally win in the last race and is good enough to take the second straight victory. 1 Plättan had energy left in the last race. Nice starting position and early contender with Ulf Ohlsson for the first time. 9 Happy Girl is consistent but has only one win in 18 starts. She benefits from high pace and should be considered early on.

10 Nordprins has won three of the last four starts and is in top form today. He has done well over the long distance before and has the best chance to win this race. 1 Pyseidon won the seasonal debut easily and followed up with a good effort in the last race. Offensive start and leads the race for a long time. 6 Tore E. is strong and tough in every way and likes this distance. In the mix if avoiding a mistake. 8 Sebastian III did well two starts back and scored a good victory. Speedy and can surprise with a similar effort.

3 Nando Boko is a quick starter and the close favorite for the lead. Looked nice in the last race and could take the first win of the year. 12 Figaro II has been a scratch after the last start but normally he is good enough to pass this field during the final lap. 2 Edlas Cyberspace is a quick starter and will reach a good position with this number. From behind the leader and with an opening at the end he has to be considered early. 11 Pontiac Renka has now three runs under his belt and is starting to approach top form. In the mix.

10 Birger W. avoided a mistake in the last race and did really well. He has the capacity for a higher class and if he avoids an error for Marcus Lilius he has a good chance of winning. 3 Lill Svarten was clearly positive in the last race and looks to be on the way to fine form after a few months break. In the mix from a good starting position. 2 Oddfax has done well in four starts this year and shown stability above all. Normally in the fight for victory. 7 Stens Erume took six wins in a row last year. Speedy, but not reliable.

1 Guided Tour did alright in the seasonal debut and is probably improved now. Good chance regardless of whether he manages to hold the lead or not. 2 Lion Silver doesn't win very often, but is well drawn and faces quite easy horses here. Early contender in this race. 5 Römossan looked nice but got locked in last time and is approaching the first win of the year. 4 Wilander had to give up at the end in the last race as second. Good starting position and should not be overlooked.

13 Observe'em galloped at the beginning of his comeback but looked nice after that. Improved by that run under his belt and over the long distance his strength should decide at the end. 7 Coin Master has found fine form again when he was allowed to race barefoot. Needs a nice defensive trip and will finish strongly then. 9 Vixi Garbo has two runs under his belt and will be improved for this start. Has four wins over the long distance and should be considered. 8 Mercenary is strong and tough and will normally be in the fight for victory.
