1.20BET365 HANDICAP (2) 3yo (Rated 0-100) £25,000 5f10y (1010 Metres)*RACE 1*GBI RACINGGoing: Good

Right handed, oval-shaped course thirteen furlongs in length with a straight of half a mile. Although a galloping course with a gradual climb from the home turn, jockeys often save something for the finish and it's a course where it pays to be not too far back on the turn for home. On soft ground the jockeys often tack across to the stand side in the straight. The five-furlong track runs across the main circuit and rises steadily throughout.

1 6 UNDERWRITER (FR) (253) 95
10189- 3 9-9 | 61.2kg

Archie Watson

Jamie Spencer

Mehmas colt who travelled with purpose and looked a nice prospect when quickening away to land 7-runner Ayr maiden in May (6f). Also won a novice over the same C&D in July and his 3 heavy defeats last year came in good company. Gelded ahead of return and drops to 5f for the first time.

2 2 CALICO BLUE (287) 98
311- 3 9-9 | 61.2kg

Roger Varian

Ray Dawson

Promising debut third in a Leicester maiden that worked out well last spring and he landed a pair of 6f Chester novice events during the summer, latterly in very convincing fashion. Off since but opening mark looks fair and he has the speed for 5f. Of interest for his leading stable.

3 8 SIR ALFIE (IRE) (8) (D) 96
4143100-8 3 9-8 | 60.8kg

Charlie Pike

Thomas Greatrex

Fairly useful turf winner in Ireland last year but well held at listed level on his final 2 starts having moved to Charles Byrnes. Gelded ahead of reappearance/stable debut and he was brushed aside over 6f at Newcastle a week ago.

4 5 ATTICUM (185) (D) 98
921- 3 9-6 | 59.9kg

Robert Cowell

Marco Ghiani

Awkward out of the stalls all 3 starts but continued theme of race-by-progress when landing 4-runner novice at Yarmouth (5f) in October, readily. Yard adept with these types and there should be more to come from him in 2026. Shortlisted.

5 1 BLACK STAR BOY (IRE) (195) 97
618- 3 9-6 | 59.9kg

Ed Walker

Kieran Shoemark

Knew a lot more than on debut when landing a few bets in 12-runner maiden over 6f at Newbury in September. Too free fully see it out in listed company over the same trip at York but he's back at 5f on reappearance (has been gelded) and could be well drawn to attack.

6 3 OLD IS GOLD (IRE) (247) (D) 97
31830- 3 9-5 | 59.4kg

Andrew Balding

James Doyle

Shaped well on debut at Ascot prior to landing 5f conditions race at Beverley, going sweetly on the bridle and quickening up well. Improved when producing another enthusiastic display at Goodwood (6f) before ending campaign on a lesser note in nursery company. Back to 5f on reappearance (gelded).

7 7 HYPNOTISED (215) (D) 100
441- 3 9-0 | 57.2kg

Harry Charlton

C. T. Keane

Improved another chunk trying 5f for the first time when a decisive winner at Southwell in September. That race worked out well and given his pedigree and connections, there should be plenty more to come from him. Major claims.

8 9 AMBISHIO (IRE) (13) (D, BF) 99

Michael Appleby

Robert Havlin

Impressed with his attitude when opening his account after 4 months off (gelded in interim) in 7-runner handicap at Southwell in January. Matched that over the same C&D a fortnight ago and he's a threat if proving as effective on turf.

9 4 ONE AND GONE (IRE) (21) 98
53134-347 3 8-11 | 55.8kg

Ian Williams

Edward Greatrex

Winning stable debut at Kempton (6f) in November but hasn't really progressed in handicaps since, albeit ridden too aggressively at Newcastle 3 weeks ago. Now tries the minimum trip for the first time.

BETTING FORECAST:

TIMEFORM VIEW:

HYPNOTISED is bred to improve with age and over longer trips but he was impressive over 5f at Southwell in the autumn and with that race working out well, this mark looks well within range on reappearance. Atticum may also end up being a useful 3-y-o for a stable well versed with similar types, while Calico Blue also needs considering.

Pitched in deep after winning a Salisbury maiden on debut and back on track when 2 lengths fourth of 7 to Look To The Stars in conditions stakes at Newbury (1m, good to soft). Big effort needed to defy this mark on return to action, though.

2 8 LOOK TO THE STARS (IRE) (195) (D) h 93

22116- 3 9-6 | 59.9kg

Charlie Appleby

William Buick

Off the mark (first start since being gelded) when defeating a highly-touted rival at Kempton (7f) and improved again (despite sweating/showing awkward head carriage) to follow up at Newbury. Failed to see out 1¼m in the Zetland Stakes final start but a hood goes on and he's back at 1m for return.

3 5 ORGANISE (13) (D) 96

James Doyle

360,000 gns Night of Thunder colt who made a highly-promising start when landing 14-runner novice at Southwell (7f) in November. Still not the finished article when landing the odds over 1m on return a fortnight ago and this Dante entrant is open to considerable improvement.

4 3 SUSPENDED SENTENCE (FR) (207) (CD) 93

64114- 3 9-3 | 58.5kg

Michael Bell

Hector Crouch

Displayed a willing attitude when beating a next-time-out scorer at Ripon (1m) in August and didn't need to improve a great deal to follow up in a nursery over C&D a month later. Ran a cracker given he was slowly away and also pulled hard when fourth in listed company final 2-y-o start.

Oisin Murphy

Flying too high in Group 2 and Group 3 following debut success at Ascot but having been gelded, he showed why he was tried in pattern company when a striking winner of 4-runner nursery at Wolverhampton last month, overcoming pace bias. 6 lb rise could be lenient.

6 7 CAPALL RASA (IRE) (155) (D) 96

Billy Loughnane

Footstepsinthesand gelding who beat a couple of next-time-out winners at Southwell in October and was pretty impressive when following up under a hands-and-heels ride upped to 1m there 7 weeks later. Could easily resume progress on grass.

Ryan Moore

Sent off 5/4 and looked useful when making a winning debut in a novice at Ayr over 7f in September, quickening clear with an impressive turn of foot. Had no problem with 8.5f when following up at Wolverhampton last month and his limit has yet to be reached.

8 2 BREATHE EASY (IRE) (55) (D) 96

Andrew Balding

Non Runner

Continued theme of race-by-race progress when opening his account in 12-runner maiden at Kempton over 7f in January, seeming suited by switch to positive tactics. Followed up over 1m at Southwell a month later and while he lacks the scope of a few on turf debut, he's bred to be useful.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

This should be a really informative 3-y-o handicap with Dante entrant ORGANISE perhaps the answer as he'll surely end up better than a handicapper as he gains further experience. Nobody Knows has passed both tests so far, so his ceiling has yet to be ascertained, while Laureate Crown looked good at Wolverhampton last month.

Andrew Balding Oisin Murphy

Quickly made into a smart colt when bagging listed races at Newmarket (9f) and Ayr (1¼m) in 2025. Found jump up in class too much when only ninth in Champion Stakes at Ascot (1¼m) final run but this lightly-raced sort remains with plenty of potential. Big shout.

2 3 DEVIL'S ADVOCATE (18) (D) 95
1/640417-2 4 9-2 | 58.1kg

John & Thady Gosden William Buick

Smart performer who defied a mark of 104 in a 1¼m handicap at the Doncaster St Leger meeting. Resumed with a solid second of 7 in listed race at Kempton (1¼m) 18 days ago. Usual cheekpieces go back on now and may do better.

Lightly-raced son of Pinatubo who looked a very good prospect when landing 1¼m handicaps at Newbury and Sandown. Ended 2025 with a good third in listed event at Goodwood in September. Appeals as the sort to do better still this season.

5 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

2-1 Almeric, 3-1 Saddadd, 3-1 Devil's Advocate, 5-1 King of Cities, 33-1 Muddy Mooy

TIMEFORM VIEW:

ALMERIC found the step up to Group 1 company at Ascot too big an ask last autumn but had looked an excellent prospect prior to that and is taken to resume winning ways on his seasonal return here. Saddadd also appeals as an improver in 2026 and could emerge as the main danger to Andrew Balding's 4-y-o, although both King Of Cities and Devil's Advocate can't be discounted either in a fascinating renewal of the Gordon Richards.

Last year's third notched a second C&D victory in a listed race here before running out a surprise winner of the Group 1 Queen Elizabeth II Stakes on Champion Day at Ascot. However, he was seen to maximum effect on that occasion and looks vulnerable under a penalty.

2 2 OPERA BALLO (IRE) (91) (CD) h 94

Charlie Appleby William Buick

Made it a remarkable 6 wins from 8 starts (including a C&D success) when successful in the Group 1 Jebel Hatta at Meydan in January, though his defeats have come at the hands of Field Of Gold/Zeus Olympios, to whom he concedes weight today.

3 1 ZEUS OLYMPIOS (210) (D) 96

Night Of Thunder colt confirmed himself an exciting prospect when making it 4-4 in the Group 2 Joel at Newmarket last September, readily seeing off Opera Ballo by 2¼ lengths, and he could make a bold bid to extend his unbeaten record with Ryan Moore taking over.

4 3 DANCING GEMINI (IRE) (188) (CD) 93

Roger Teal

Landed the second leg of a double in this race 12 months ago before going close in the Group 1 Lockinge and Jacques Le Marois, respectively. Ended his season with a couple of lesser efforts, though, and returns in a stronger renewal than last year.

John & Thady Gosden C. T. Keane

High-class winner of the Irish 2000 Guineas/St James's Palace Stakes who wasn't seen to best effect in either the Sussex Stakes or QEI subsequently, and he's still very much the one to beat on the pick of his 3-y-o form.

6 4 NEVER SO BRAVE (IRE) (188) (D) 97
720/21117- 5 9-3 | 58.5kg

Andrew Balding Oisin Murphy

Proved himself a different model for Andrew Balding last season and is better judged on the form of his success in the Group 1 City Of York (7f), than his showing in the QEI on Champions Day last October. He's in excellent hands and entitled to be in the mix on return.

BETTING FORECAST:

11-8 Field of Gold, 11-4 Zeus Olympios, 13-2 Never So Brave, 8-1 Opera Ballo, 16-1 Dancing Gemini, 33-1 Cicero's Gift

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A typically small field doesn't make this any less intriguing, with high-class Irish 2000 Guineas winner FIELD OF GOLD the one to beat on first start as a 4-y-o. Never So Brave was much improved last season, landing his breakthrough Group 1 success over 7f, and he could be better equipped than most if the pace is steady. Zeus Olympios concedes weight to the aforementioned pair but could progress again in his bid to make it 5-5.

8 2 RUBY WEDDING (181) 91
35- 3 9-2 | 58.1kg

Made an encouraging start in a couple of very informative novice last October, fifth of 9 in novice at Newbury (1m, heavy) most recently. Remains open to improvement, particularly now upped in trip.

9 9 SULLOM VOE (IRE)
3 9-2 | 58.1kg

David Menuisier Jason Watson
€110,000 yearling, New Bay filly. Half-sister to several winners, including smart 1m-10.4f winner Patrick Sarsfield and useful 1m winner Polar Appeal. Dam maiden. Likely outsider in this.

10 4 SUNSHINE STAR (196) 93
2- 3 9-2 | 58.1kg

John & Thady Gosden Oisin Murphy
Sea The Stars filly who shaped with plenty of promise having been held back by inexperience early on when second of 6 in novice at Kempton (1m) on debut 6 months ago, pulling clear of rest. Upped in trip for her return and seems sure to progress and win races.

BETTING FORECAST:

5-2 Ribbon of Sea, 3-1 Sunshine Star, 15-2 Felicitas, 17-2 Bintsaleh, 14-1 Ladykirk, 16-1 Alma Latina, 16-1 Ruby Wedding, 40-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A red-hot fillies' novice chock-full with potential. Preference is for RIBBON OF SEA, who was still very rough around the edges when scoring on return at Wolverhampton last month and Charlie Appleby's filly looks sure to progress again. Sunshine Star showed plenty amidst inexperience when runner-up at Kempton on debut 6 months ago and she's feared most now upped in trip. Felicitas and Bintsaleh may both be involved, too.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

1. RIBBON OF SEA 2. SUNSHINE STAR 3. FELICITAS

NORDOFF & ROBBINS OZZY OSBOURNE MEMORIAL
HANDICAP (4) 3yo (Rated 0-85) £15,000 1m1f209y
(2000 Metres)Going: Good

Right handed, oval-shaped course thirteen furlongs in length with a straight of half a mile. Although a galloping course with a gradual climb from the home turn, jockeys often save something for the finish and it's a course where it pays to be not too far back on the turn for home. On soft ground the jockeys often tack across to the stand side in the straight. The five-furlong track runs across the main circuit and rises steadily throughout.

Draw: N/A Pace Information: Even

1 1 COLOURBAND (IRE) (19) (D) 100
732-1 3 9-9 | 61.2kg

Simon & Ed Crisford

James Doyle

Beaten by an exciting prospect at Kempton in December and didn't need to match that form to go one better returning to turf after 4 months off in 8-runner novice at Bath (1¼m, good) 19 days ago, making all. Wasn't fully extended that day and capable of better again now handicapping.

2 6 LOST BOYS (IRE) (209) 95
331- 3 9-8 | 60.8kg

David Menuisier

Hector Crouch

Night of Thunder colt who put his experience to use and showed a good attitude when winning 9-runner maiden at Haydock (1m, good) back in September. Will be suited by this step up to 1¼m and likely to progress further.

3 4 INTO THE LIGHT (44) (D, BF) 97
12 3 9-8 | 60.8kg

Charlie Appleby

William Buick

Well-bred colt who landed 5-runner maiden on debut at Lingfield in February with plenty in hand despite a steady gallop. Took a step forward in a deeper race when runner-up at Southwell the following month and bred to be useful, he's open to further progress now handicapping.

4 5 MAGIC TRIP (23) 93
18-3 3 9-7 | 60.3kg

Andrew Balding

Jason Watson

Debut winner at Bath in September but struggled in Group 3 at Milan following month. Gelded and shaped well making all-weather debut after 5 months off when third of 13 in novice at Kempton (1m) earlier in the month and should have more to offer now handicapping upped in trip.

5 2 THE JOKER (FR) (175) 93
3429- 3 9-5 | 59.4kg

Jane Chapple-Hyam

Rossa Ryan

Zarak colt who showed something like debut form when second in a course maiden (7f, soft) last August. Well below best in 7f novice at Newmarket on final outing but bred to be suited by this increase in trip, so interesting if there's confidence behind him in the betting now handicapping.

6 3 BNAIDER (182) (BF) 93
443- 3 9-1 | 57.6kg

Harry Charlton

Oisin Murphy

Ran to a similar level on all 3 starts last season, rather surprisingly failed to improve faced with more of a test of stamina when third of 10 in novice (9/4) at Newbury (1m, heavy) 6 months ago. Step forward needed on return/handicap debut.

6 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

3-1 Colourband, 3-1 Into The Light, 9-2 Magic Trip, 11-2 Lost Boys, 15-2 Bnaider, 12-1 The Joker

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Hard to rule out any of the sextet but preference is for COLOURBAND, who wasn't fully extended to make a winning return at Bath earlier in the month and Simon & Ed Crisford's charge is capable of better again now handicapping. Into The Light has made a promising start to his career and he can give the selection most to think about on handicap bow, with Magic Trip taken to fill out third.
