Summary: This contest may be more open than it first appears. MYKONOS (7), a quality returner, is presented barefoot from the outset and has likely been primed for this comeback. However, MISTER LA NUIT (9), who forms a formidable partnership with Benjamin Rochard, looks a major threat. MILORD DU CHATELET (3) showed great tenacity last time despite not enjoying the smoothest of runs and should be competitive again. MONSIEUR DARLING (5) goes well around track is another to consider.

Summary: Arnaud Maillard may well hold the key to this contest with JAMAICA D'OYSE (6), who is in peak form, and JAZZ SESSION (3), who has been well managed this year. IMPACT DE L'ITON (1) has shown improvement of late and, with plenty of natural speed, this track could suit his bid for a victory. . LASH PERRINE (1) is also on the upgrade and should find this assignment within reach, making him a strong contender. LIBERTINE DJOB (8) is worth another chance after failing to deliver under the saddle last time and, returning to harness, she is taken to bounce back with a solid run.
