10 Hopefully won his debut in a nice way. Faces quite easy opposition this time and should have a top chance even though he is starting from this tricky lane. 5 Sister Nell did well in her debut last time. Certainly improved by that run under her belt and she should reach a good position from this nice lane behind the gate. 11 N.Y.Easy On Me scored a good second spot in the last race but needs some luck from this starting position. 1 Kiwi Brick run barefoot back now which is an advantage.

4 Je T'Aime Legacy competed in the V75 last time and did well as fourth then. Opens fast and could find the lead for Tom Johansson, who has driven the horse in the last four starts which is an advantage in this type of race. Once there it would be a good chance. 5 Sunset Sky does well most of the time. Experienced driver in the sulky. Early contender. 6 River Tooma has a run under his belt after a long layoff. 1 Turmfalke returns after a break. Might need this run.

5 Diamond Jackie had a tough time in the last heat to the Derby for fillies. She went outside the leader that time, which she normally can handle. Completely different opposition this time and the mare has top chance to win. 3 Piney Spring did not impress in the debut for Roger Walmann but has got a training period after that. Owns good capacity. 6 Magna Cash is not reliable at all but has quite good speed. 8 Royale Tooma is chasing the first win ever.

11 Hatrick Match has done very well in three starts. A tricky task here from this number and facing tougher opponents, but the horse has shown such good capacity and good attitude that he should have a good chance to pass them all. 6 Little Coco was not at his best last time. Got a layoff after that and is back now. He could be lacking top form, but he still has to be considered. 7 Lonely Nights was a good winner in the last race. Tougher opposition this time. 2 Beaver Creek started with three wins in a row and did alright in two starts after that.

4 Good Reads has not won on Swedish soil yet, but his performances have been more than impressive. This time the horse competes with an American bike, which is interesting. Has a better lan than his main rivals and should be considered. 8 Galaxy Love D.E. has two wins but no less than eleven second and third places. Is strong and can do it tough. 9 Irwin Zet returns after a seven-week layoff. Owns good capacity. 10 Oregon Boko is matched in good companies.

8 Night Hawk is undefeated for Andreas Lövdal after four starts. Has impressed and despite a disappointing starting position this time he is still the horse to beat. Showed that he can do it tough. 5 Ike Zet was really strong after a gallop in the last Derby heat. Is very good for this class and seems to be both strong and fast. 3 Basic Structure is guaranteed a good position as he is a fast starter. 1 Flying Finn is an early contender in terms of capacity. Needs some luck from here.

8 Tracy galloped with plenty of energy left in the last race. Has shown very high capacity and despite this lane this should be a top chance. 5 Queen Gold looked nice but got locked in with energy left in the last race. Competed with a Norwegian bridle for the first time then and was improved. Is a quick starter. Possible if the favorite fails. 7 Twigs Khaleesi risks a tough start from this poor lane. Scored a close victory in the lead a short while ago. 3 Granns Lady is consistent and won comfortably from the lead in the last race.

2 Our Pride is strong and owns high capacity. After a yearlong layoff he won the comeback two starts back after a really good final lap. Has to be considered regardless of position. 10 Loxahatchee has shown great capacity for this class. Is very fast and strong, but this lane is difficult. 11 Kinky Boots came back after a long layoff in the last race and was nice. Certainly improved by that run under his belt and has to be considered with the right trip. 1 Money Matters is very fast from the start and should find the lead or the pocket from here.

5 Jeriko Brick is very fast from the start and has taken seven out of eight wins from the lead and has not been at least second in eleven starts. As the favorite for the lead he is our clear pick, although there is no shortage of opposition. 7 Golden Sunrise is capable for this class. Matched in tough companies and despite the risk of a tough journey along the way, he is an early choice. 2 Slivovitz Lover has not won for more than a year but has made several good and strong performances lately. 4 Sakima T.H. likes the short distance.
