6 G.K.Levelup is our pick in this poor race. The horse has clearly improved lately. Won after a trip from behind three starts ago and galloped with energy left two starts back - and in the last race he held strongly from first over. Easier opposition now, good chance. 10 Cujo won in easy company in his third race but was not good after that. In the last race he was clearly improved again and with a similar performance he should have a good chance together with Aleksí Flink. 9 Stage Diver has one run under his belt after a long layoff. Certainly improved by that race, but needs to show more than last time to win this. 11 First Lucifer has not always trotted perfectly but shown good speed. Possible but needs some luck.		A: 6-10 B: 9-11-3-4-12 C: 7-5-8-2

3 Back To Black has improved and from a good starting position in this quite easy field, the horse should have a good chance of winning. 10 Kennedy Boko scored a good win in the last race and should normally be improved by that run under his belt. 5 Mustang Norrgård is perhaps the horse that has shown the highest capacity in this race. Inexperienced driver, but good chance with the right journey. 6 Eland is trainer-driven now.

6 Good Manners got a mediocre start but has really taken steps in the right direction this autumn and his last effort was strong. A similar performance should to be good enough to win here but we would like to see more continuity. 4 The Pretender makes his debut for a new trainer after doing alright in Finland. Quick starter. 5 Freeman Dance has enough speed but needs to show better pace. 9 Old Sailor Newport has been in good form in the last couple of races.

2 Icon Mearas had shown good form in the last race a bit behind the winner when he won in a very easy company. Could lead this from start to finish. 8 Return Of Mogens has done really well for almost two years. He is consistent and has shown that he is versatile. 5 Byron Face was in the Travronden Guldklocka a week ago and finished well as second behind Börtas Ankare. 6 Duncan Cowan is probably the one in this field who has the best capacity. Has not convinced for a long time though.

1 Gandalf Brodde has earlier done really in the V75 earlier for Lars Wikström. Hard to predict in this debut for a new trainer, but faces perfect here. Nice lane as he is a quick starter. 9 Sigel Rose does well most of the time. Needs the right defensive journey. Contender. 6 Pay Me has not raced for a long time. The form is hard to predict, but the capacity is high. 4 Casper For Cash has done alright a bit behind the winner lately and is very interesting together with Simon Helm.
