9 Explosiv Axe has now started twice in Norway after a longer layoff. He finished third in both races and should have a good chance here despite this tricky starting position. 7 Odd Viking earned the most money last year and is probably one of the best horses in this field. His form is a bit of a question mark though. 8 Delicious Monica had a pretty good season last year. She has a difficult lane too but should be considered early anyway. 5 Thai Mississippi is not that bad either. Was quite clearly defeated by our pick in the last race though. An outsider.

8 Ros Venn won six out of 18 races last year and has to be considered very early here. Bad lane but good chance with the right journey. 7 Kringlers Attila didn't win a race last year but has been very consistent and good towards the end. Could get an offensive trip and won't be easy to beat from the lead. 5 Finnskog Zera is clearly better than the latest results show. Has galloped towards the end but if she avoids a mistake she can challenge. 6 Eirik af Sola is consistent and good and earned quite a bit of money last year. He is more often second than first though and is mainly a place bet for us.

4 Get Going has taken three wins and two second places in eight starts. Comes with two victories in a row and has a nice lane here. Good chance. 2 Crackeur has two wins and a second place in four starts. Makes his debut behind the gate and is ideally drawn. Early challenger. 3 Come Queen should not be underestimated even though she didn't win a race in 14 attempts last year. Can open quickly. 8 Scandalous has not won yet after 15 starts and has got a bad lane. However, he comes from a good second spot. Could cause an upset.

2 Valentina has started brilliantly and been very consistent and good. Has an excellent lane and will probably take an early lead here. Top chance in that case. 10 Thatsallright E.P. won in his third race last time after two third places. He has a tougher number than our favorite but is still the main challenger. 4 Lazer is a little bit better than the latest results show but we think he will have a hard time challenging our top duo. 8 Newton B.R. won in September but is now coming back after a layoff and has got a difficult draw too. Valentina is the likely winner of this race. Vi think that Brenne- make a break will get ahead at an early stage this time and with a couple of runs in the body you normally have a good chance of winning. Banker in both the V65 and V4 games for us.

4 Lynet McQueen has won five out of 15 races. He has put in several good efforts without winning but now it could be his turn. Our pick. 2 Haaland D.E. is a stable companion to our winner. Has won six out of 16 races and is really good for this company. Good draw and early challenger. 7 Jolin Southwind took two wins in a row last autumn and has done well at the end in quite tough companies. Hopes for some speed from here. 5 Lucky Luciano earned the most money last year and is not that bad. Does not win very often but could be a fun outsider.

4 Hornnes Odd made the most money last year. He is facing easier horses than in the last few races and has got a good lane. Should have a good chance to win this. 7 Trollelden is making his first start for a new trainer. He won in Sweden at the end of November and will be exciting to follow. Is fast from the start. 9 Vina af Sola has shown good form of late but needs a bit of luck from this number. Hopes for quick pace. 2 Tempranillo has also done well of late and got an excellent lane. Could cause a surprise.
