RACE 1

Going: Standard

Lingfield's left-handed all-weather track is laid out inside the turf track and, measuring just less than a mile and a quarter round, is essentially sharp in nature. This, along with how the races often pan out ensures that stamina is rarely at a premium and strong-travelling types with a turn of foot are often favoured. Predominantly flat, there is a slight downhill turn in to the straight. At shorter trips, prominent racers tend to outperform those ridden more patiently, though there seems little advantage over further. Lingfield's surface is polytrack.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

John Butler has his string in good nick and his veteran GLOBAL WARNING signalled he is ready to strike again when an unlucky-in-running second over C&D last time. He is weighted to go one better now at the chief expense of Kondratiev Wave, who dead-heated over C&D recently. In-form duo Alashos and Fort Augustus can also have a say.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

MISS MOONSHINE did well to dead-heat over C&D last month having conceded first run and rates the pick of the weights here so looks the way to go. The reliable Gundogan appeals as the main danger, although both Taskheer and So Chic having winning form at the track and must also enter calculations.

Typical improving handicapper for this yard in 2025, doubling his career tally with blinkers fitted at Pontefract in July. Not seen out for 8 months but very much one to consider if the better vibes are positive.

Much improved in first-time cheekpieces on his handicap debut when landing 12-runner event at Kempton (11f) 21 days ago. Up 3 lb but he's the sort to continue improving with headgear retained. Leading claims.

6 8 TORTURED SOUL (7) (CD) 99

Tony Carroll

Billy Loughnane

Scored over C&D and at Southwell either side of Christmas and he has continued in good nick, second of 8 in 11f handicap at Kempton 7 days ago. Merits consideration once more.

7 6 PROVISION (162) 93

Fair form shown when twice placed for Paul Midgley. Hinted at promise on yard/hurdling debut when fifth of 9 in juvenile at Kempton in December. Can take a step forward now handicapping back in this sphere.

8 3 UPEPO (IRE) (18) (CD) 97

048018-03 6 8-13 | 56.7kg

Tony Carroll

Jack Dace (5lb/2kg)

TIMEFORM VIEW:

James Owen's NAVAL TRIBUTE took a big step forward on his first venture into handicaps when getting off the mark at Kempton recently and this low-mileage 5-y-o can make light of a 3 lb rise in the weights here. Thomas Faulkner's new recruit Robbo appeals as the one to chase him home ahead of the consistent Tortured Soul.

Bit below form third of 8 in novice at Wolverhampton (6f) 15 days ago, albeit things didn't go entirely her way on that occasion. Went close off a similar mark in a Southwell handicap on penultimate start and she needs considering.

Michael Appleby

Wolverhampton maiden winner on debut last summer and ended time with Marco Botti by finishing a close third of 7 in handicap at Kempton (6f) 65 days ago. Makes debut for new yard off the same mark and she's one to consider.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Michael Appleby is adept at getting the best out of recruits from rival yards and SPACE BEAR, who was a close-up third despite racing freely on her final run for previous connections at Kempton in January, could prove to be another case in point. Filly Foden usually gives her running, so it's easy to excuse her for what was a rare poor effort last time and she is second choice ahead of Calling A Star and Welcome Retreat.

Finally off the mark at Ffos Las (1m) in June and largely held his form on turf thereafter. However, hasn't been at best in pair of all-weather starts since the turn of the year.

BETTING FORECAST:

4-1 Saachi, 11-2 Dotties Star, 6-1 Gearing's Point, 8-1 Warrior Lion, 10-1 Ignition, 14-1 Paps of Jura, 16-1 Foinix, 16-1 Alex The Great, 18-1 Tatmeen, 18-1 Change of Fortune, 22-1 Onlyriversrunfree, 25-1 Pure Theory

TIMEFORM VIEW:

In a wide-open race it could pay to take a chance on IGNITION, who didn't find things panning out ideally when fourth over further at Wolverhampton 5 weeks ago and this ease back in trip ought to pose no fears. Last-time-out scorer Saachi, Gearing's Point and Warrior Lion (returned to the Flat) are others to consider.

Lingfield's left-handed all-weather track is laid out inside the turf track and, measuring just less than a mile and a quarter round, is essentially sharp in nature. This, along with how the races often pan out ensures that stamina is rarely at a premium and strong-travelling types with a turn of foot are often favoured. Predominantly flat, there is a slight downhill turn in to the straight. At shorter trips, prominent racers tend to outperform those ridden more patiently, though there seems little advantage over further. Lingfield's surface is polytrack.
