1 Magiclove Ducampus makes his debut for Björn Goop. Interesting well-bred horse and the Färjestad trainer uses to have his horses well prepared. 6 Timotejs Palomina convinced in the qualifier, but finished only second in the debut after a quick finish. Could take revenge here. 8 Il Cioccolata did well as second behind a talented trotter in his debut. Makes his comeback here. 9 Nightcap has made a good start so far, but done well a bit behind the leader. Could be improved now.

7 Stuffed was brilliant in the debut for a new trainer last time and should be on the way up. 1 Kristian Croc has a perfect starting position and deserves a victory soon. He got a trip on the outside of Superman Tile in the last race, could be the other way around now. 6 Superman Tile has two wins in a row. He faces tougher opposition now, but he has looked strong and should not be overlooked. 4 Marty Byrd still hasn't won a race but has been matched in quite tough companies. Interesting with Björn Goop now.

Has very good speed resources. 6 Hulte Adam has a run under his belt after the winter break. 4 Il Salvador has good speed and will make an interesting start in Sweden.

6 Facetime Dream has shown very high capacity all his life. Came back after a long layoff two starts back and convinced immediately. Won the last time too and there is no doubt that the horse is really good for this low class. Will normally win this. 2 Global Fighter has been very consistent and good, but doesn't win very often. 8 River Tooma is matched in good company but this starting position is disappointing. 5 Chevalier Indika was nice despite a gallop in the last race.

Should be improved by that run under his belt. He is a real winning machine. 10 Ready Star was brilliant last year. Is working well before this seasonal debut and even though the starting position is not optimal, he should have a nice chance. 2 Comes With Age has a good starting position and should not be discounted with the right journey from behind.
