RANK

1 Mercedes Hall never had a real chance in a quick finish after 10.5/500 meter last time. She was strong second last from the front and has previously shown that she prefers to run in the lead where the four victories were scored. 9 Denali Doc has looked a lot faster lately and finished strongly last time. 4 Mitzy Gold put in some nice efforts during last season. She is up and down, but has a high top level. 2 Raya Maya is in good form and is driven by Kihlström against just like last time.

12 Cab Frontline has been matched in tough V75 races for a while and finished strongly as fourth behind Jerka Sting and Winterburn. Down in class and a good chance to finish to victory. 8 Fetter Tir is speedy and is really good every now and then. The seven-year-old has won nine out of 29 starts during his career but is now returning after a long absence. 9 Ruger held strongly from the front last time but has found it hard to win lately. 10 Atomic Face has good capacity for this class.

3 Teknopys made a solid effort, mostly on the outside of the leader last time. The form is certainly improved by that race and the horse could reach the front here. 9 Dån Klara sprinted strongly to victory last time and competed without back shoes again. She is a lot better without back shoes and has won six out of eight races that way. 7 Per Viking has good skills but he hasn't found his way back to the highest level yet. 11 Lill Hans was clearly positive in the debut for a new trainer last time.
