9 Huseby Mikke has high capacity, but is not completely reliable. He is fast for this race and if he just avoids a mistake, he won't be easy to answer during the final lap. 10 Edvarda galloped probably on the way to victory last time. Good form and is one of several horses who can win the race. 7 Thess Imas has won three out of four starts. The development curve clearly points on the way up and here a new victory can come. 6 Vimo Borken gallops very often, but can surprise with a flawless race.
