4 Grodda Jet owns great capacity for this class, which she showed when scoring the latest win in Hamburg. Here on Swedish soil she has not been as successful, but after a training period she is our pick in this four-horse race. 3 Catch Lane finished strongly in the last race despite not trotting perfectly. Is speedy and could challenge. 1 Murena finished well as third in the last race and could have improved his form further. 6 Västerbo Monroe has shown good form for a while and with some racing luck she could score her maiden here.
