3 Ka Boom Mearas started his career as a two-year-old last year with two straight wins. Now his form seems to be on the rise again with two races under his belt after a break. 6 Ice Pack made his debut for a new stable last time out and kept up his pace well to finish second. He should be sharper now and is an early pick here. 4 Nikita Boko finished well to second in his last race. If she gets the right trip, she could well show up in the fight here. 5 Light In is a nice type who held on well from the lead last time out. If he takes the races the right way, he should do well here.

4 Nobby Stiles Boko had a bad start in the first turn last time out heavily backed. He had two good races before that and it may be time for a win now. 6 Kentucky Sisu is undefeated without any faults after four starts. His recent form is uncertain as he has been scratched since his last race, but he should still be considered. 2 Free to Ask found room from the leader's back last time and should have had some energy left. He will soon take his first win. 3 Inferno U.M. moved up outside the leader with over a lap to go last time and held on well.

11 Devs Demimonde made her first start for Mattias Djuse last time out. As so many times before, she galloped - but she has the speed to win in a faultless race. 6 Vikings Saga has an interesting position with Björn Goop in the sulky. If they can take the front, they could lead all the way. 8 Extra Sweet finished decently last time out. She is not a horse to rely on, and post position two is not perfect - but she is good when faultless. 3 La Forza we thought had a good debut. Melander's horses usually improve with a race under their belt.

7 Soundtrack is making an interesting start. The well-bred four-year-old came to Nurmos' stable last autumn. After winter training, we believe in a good performance. 9 Tom's Got Drive made his debut for Reijo Liljendahl last time out and won easily from the front. Different position now, but he should definitely be counted on again. 3 Espadrillos may need a race under his belt after a break, but this number is good and he is possible here. 2 The Kraken Razz followed nicely last time as second and the feeling is that the form is on the rise.

7 Tip of the Tounge easily won from the lead in the last race and looked good. Has been at least third in nine starts so far. 5 Andover Heaven has had a couple of months break from racing. Likes the distance and should be competitive straight away. 4 Uncle Silvio got locked in with plenty of energy left in the last race. Should be considered behind the favorites. 9 No Limit Express galloped after 150 meters in his comeback race in Orkla last time out, but came back strongly and finished third.

6 Charlotte Bailey won her first race last time out and was outstanding after being a bit fiery in the lead. A half lap shorter distance should suit her well. 9 Bottoms Up Broline was impressive when he won despite an early gallop three starts ago. After a short break, he should be considered early on. 7 Kapten Nemo galloped in the first turn last time out. He's not completely reliable yet, but he has the speed. 4 Lucky Flevo has started the year with two gallops. If he behaves now, he is possible here.

9 Global Dependable had a short pause before the last race, but still finished fourth in a new record. He probably would have had three straight wins before that without a mistake on February 22 - our pick. 3 Peter Pan has completed his seasonal debut. He won from the lead two starts back, and the feeling is that he will develop nicely in the future. 1 Dee Godfather has made a lot of mistakes lately. Is better than the results show and can open fast with this number in the circular start. 4 Golden Crescent galloped in the first turn last time. He should not be overlooked here.

6 Axel Ruda has a suitable task ahead of him. He was last out in an elimination heat to the Paralympiatravet, so he is used to meeting the best. He should find an early lead. 7 Young King is clearly the toughest opponent. However, he has been away for a couple of months and may need this run under his belt. 9 Jaques Noir makes his first start for trainer Claes Sjöström. He is a good horse for this class and has got a nice number for a defensive trip. 5 Isabel B.R. finished well after a defensive journey two starts back. Is looking for a similar run here.

5 Noxx Vrijthout won after a strong finish in the last run. Can open fast, but might not be driven in the lead since she likes to attack from the back. 8 Global Dubhe had a great seasonal debut last time. Now the position has become difficult, but with some racing luck he'll fight for victory again. 3 Finn Palema made his debut in Sweden last time and should be improved by that run. An interesting four-year-old with a nice number. 4 Ciak Bi has not been at his best. Is very good for this class though and should not be forgotten.

3 Mellby Imperial has won both races this year convincingly after a long break. Got a good position this time, and should have a nice chance. 2 Cash Winner wins after and has seven victories in 16 starts. Had a good finish last time at Solvalla and should be considered early here. 4 Strängnäs Palema is waiting for his first win of the year. Is in quite good form and could cause an upset here with the right journey. 6 Nordic Star Tooma comes from a good third place in the V75. Will certainly go for the front and could lead this for a long while in that case.
