7 Timotejs Messenger is not completely reliable, but owns good strength and if he lives up to his capacity he will not be easy to resist. 1 Hip To Be Square held strongly in his last mini-comeback. The three-year-old is good for this field and could win the race. 6 Global Fine Dining finished strongly in the last race and is on the way to top form. 2 Quick Action O.C. has won two out of four races on this track and is now driven by Magnus A Djuse for the first time.

RANK

5 Pedal To D'Metal is coming back after a long break from racing, but is reported to be training well and should have the best chance to win this race. 4 Hamilton L.C. was nice in the last race and the six-year-old is a quick starter and the favorite for the front. Will lead the race for a long time. 7 Explosive Bi has six wins this year. Can open quickly but will probably get a journey on the outside. 6 Ajlexes Oyecomo Va got locked in last time and scored a good win before that so his form is top and he should not be underestimated.

RANK

11 Ogden Boko finished quickly in the last comeback despite not earning anything. The four-year-old will be even sharper now and should have a good chance of passing the field during the final lap. 8 Dart Kronos got locked in with energy left in his first start for the new trainer. Tough and strong and is clearly a horse for the fight for victory. 4 Beauty Evo is toughly matched and has been improved. Early choice behind the favorite. 5 Neon Bank has a lot of potential but is not reliable. In the mix without a mistake.

8 Romulus Diablo has reached the front in both starts and won easily. Full attack here and good chance to take the lead in the first turn and then he will be hard to beat. 11 Paleo Boko has won two out of six races and looked nice in the last race as locked in after a gallop. Is the main challenger to our pick. 12 Krut has been at least fourth in five starts. Should not be overlooked. 6 Django Mango is consistent, but should primarily be seen as a place bet.
