THURSDAY, 27/03/25

Summary: BIG LOG (16) looks to be well treated on form at this track last year when he was third in a competitive Class 2 handicap, and he was not beaten far over 1400m at this track earlier this month in a Class 2 handicap. He can edge this from ZELORO (14) who won over track and trip in December and is lightly raced and has more to come. NOBLEMAN (9) won over 1900m in mid-October at this track and has to be considered. EVERSTAR (10) likes this surface and ran well at this track recently. He is an each-way option, along with SOUS LA NEIGE (8), who warrants respect.

Summary: Having eased in the handicap, it might be worth taking a chance on SASSY RASCAL (9), who is more than capable of making an impact in a race of this nature off her current handicap rating. VIOU (6) has the assistance of Maxime Guyon and acquitted himself well at Machecoul last time out in late February. He can be a threat. SIXTUS (4) acts on all types of surfaces and is the each-way angle. PINK VALENTINE (8) is also worth considering.

WEWILLDANCEAGAIN (4) is improving and will be full of confidence after her last two wins. She can make the selection work hard for success. BONIFACE (3) has won both starts and now tries a new surface for the first time and warrants respect. SPIRIT D'OR (5) heads the remainder.

ABLAZE (4) has shown ability in two non-claiming events and could be a threat to the selection. CLIMATIC (9) has only had the one run and now drops into a claimer for the first time as well and is one to consider. LOUIS DEUX (1) has won in this class and warrants respect.
