2 I Can Win Gardenia has got two runs under his belt after a short pause and is starting to get back fine form. A good starting position and an early contender here. 7 Frankie Godiva galloped early in the last race but is normally reliable. Good for this class and should be in the fight for victory. 5 That's It likes this distance and will compete barefoot and with an American bike. 1 Quillerbee likes to run in the front and will lead this race for a long time. All the way?

5 Randa Panda comes back after a layoff and although the form is hard to predict she should still be considered early in this seasonal debut. Good chance, especially if she reaches the front. 3 When You Smile started in October last time and is hard to predict, just like our pick. Nice starting position and early contender if well prepared. 7 Sleipner Express owns good capacity but is not reliable at all. Good chance if he avoids a mistake. 9 Flair Kronos could get a defensive trip from behind and is primarily a place bet.

9 Cuarto De B. scored a nice win at Örebro in October. The horse has now changed owners and is trained by Noa Relden. Is normally good enough to win this race. 2 Special Jog has been consistent and good. Is working well and should be considered immediately in this comeback. 1 Tvingens Calippo reached the front after a while in the last race and won easily. Has to be considered - especially if he manages to find the lead. 7 Idholmens Eton is undefeated in the lead after two attempts but might find it hard to come there now.

5 Piernas Largas got interfered in the last race but did well. Has won two out of five races this season and should have a good chance of winning. 1 Email Address took three straight wins in January, but didn't show the same form last time. Normally in the fight for victory from this good starting position. 7 Second Serve never had a chance in the last V85 race. He faces slightly easier opposition now and is one of several contenders who can win this race. 2 Mondavi uses to put in consistent and good performances, but has only one win in 13 starts.

7 Henessi Krim is a quick starter and if he takes the lead - which is the main scenario - he will not be easy to reach. 1 Tullamore Rick can also open fast with the circular start and if he can hold the lead, his chances will increase even if he also could win from the pocket. 6 Forest Wood showed great ability on a couple of occasions last year and if he reaches the same level now, he has to be considered. 12 Good As Caviar has completed the seasonal debut and will be improved by that race.

1 Waco Sixx reached the front in the seasonal debut and won easily. Six of eight career wins have been taken from that position and this looks like a nice task. 4 Everglow is possible too from a good starting position and has to be considered early if our pick fails. 6 Do It Dorothy got a run under her belt in the last race and should be improved now. 7 Man After Midnight is consistent and should not be discounted with the right journey from behind until the home stretch.
