9 Brenne Blink is a Norwegian guest who has got twos run under his belt after a long layoff. Won directly in the comeback and sprinted to a narrow defeat last time. Should be on the way up. Good chance. 7 Remlöf is an early challenger. He won no less than seven out of nine races last year and comes from victory after a nice trip. 1 Aske Balder wins often too. Won easily from the lead at Åmål in October. 10 The Peggblixten is also consistent and good. Can win with the right trip.

Mediocre amateur race. 4 Security Lock is our idea. He won from the lead second last and before and after that he raced at Solvalla. Much easier now. New driver. 15 Inferno Launcher has got a difficult draw but he has shown good form of late. Easier opponents now. 12 Rocket Snapper won a total of five races last year and that is impressive in this simple company. New driver. 1 Mr Shyguy won at Solvalla in August last year but has not convinced at all after that. Could find the lead.

2 Crazy Muscles is our winner. The Norwegian horse comes with two victories from the lead. Excellent draw and goes for the front again.

3 American Cash competed in the V75 last winter and meets easier horses now. Can open fast and challenges for the lead and the victory.

1 No Limit has been consistent and good at the end and will certainly get a nice trip. Contender. 8 Cutting Corners is trained and driven by Daniel Redén. Galloped in the comeback last time. The form is a bit hard to predict. Poor draw.

12 Nunja won in the V75 last time, but that was in September. We assume that the horse is well prepared. Poor number but faces very nice conditions money-wise. 8 Timetoshinebonanza has also got a difficult starting position. This Norwegian horse likes to compete in Sweden, where she has won six out of seven races. How will the tactics be from here? 2 Proud Mary is consistent and good and should get a nice trip from here. 4 Maribou Bonanza can open fast and is our favorite for the lead.
