5 L.A.'s Blackmillion did really well as third despite a gallop in his debut and showed good speed. Returns after winter training now. The lane is not optimal, but if the four-year-old avoids a mistake, he should have a good chance. 6 Naranja Mearas is interesting in the debut for the Daniel Wäjersten stable. His horses usually need a couple of runs under their belt before they are ready for big things. Should still be in the mix here. 3 The Young Duke is possible without a mistake. 1 Global Honesty has a run under the belt.

2 Alm Vinni has done really well so far and scored 14 wins in 24 starts. Has a good starting position and is all-round. Should have a good chance. 5 Øina Perla competes barefoot and with an American bike. Has two runs under his belt after a layoff and should be in really good shape. Åsbjörn Tengsareid now is interesting. 11 Jonases Ninja owns great speed. 1 Langlandsballerina will probably not be able to hold the lead here.

6 Holiday Island finished second behind a really good horse in the last race. Should have a good chance to take the lead here and once in that position he is the horse to beat. 10 Macguffin has done really well lately without winning. Has good capacity for this class and is strong and tough. Early challenger. 3 Västerbo Snap started his career with two wins in a row. Possible but needs some racing luck. 1 Genius Blue Grif has good capacity, but is not always reliable. Nice conditions.

3 Briskeby Pilen won brilliantly in the last race after a tough trip. He is not a very quick starter but he should be able to reach the front after a while. In that case he will be hard to beat. 12 Guldhagens Oscar has to pass many opponents, but he really has the right attitude. Early contender. 13 Tekno Jerven has superior speed, but the form is hard to predict and he is not entirely reliable. 4 Ethel is a quick starter and seems in top form today.
