He made a reassuring return to action at Mons, finishing third, and looks more than capable of winning a race of this nature. NEVELE STAR (10) is a filly with plenty of scope for improvement. She finished her race quite well at Nancy and deserves serious consideration, alongside NUIT DU DER (9), who will once again race with plates on her front feet. NALA DU COIGNET (11) also has a chance, provided she can keep her composure throughout.

LORD DU TRIEUX (1) arrives on the back of an impressive success and looks to have rediscovered his best form at just the right time. LONGING VENESI (13) made a winning return to action at Wolvega and comes back to France full of confidence. Ideally drawn behind the autostart, LOVERMAN D'HERTALS (2) should not be underestimated either.

Summary: A slight preference is given to those drawn on the front row, headed by JOSY EXPRESS (1), who finds herself in a race well within her capabilities. She will be looking to take advantage of her favourable draw to get the better of JUST REMEMBER (4), who has been given a freshener since his second place last time out, and HE STAR DU CALICE (8), who runs barefoot on his returns to action after a short break. JOY EASTER (16) is in excellent form, but her starting position could prove a significant disadvantage.

Summary: MENTIONNAL (8) made an impressive return to harness racing, scoring with plenty in hand, and looks set to play a leading role. He should however face stiff competition from MAX DE PEISELS (6), who was narrowly denied at Nancy last time out, and MYSTREAM DU DOME (7), who ris expected to bounce back after a disappointing effort two weeks ago. Behind these three, MYRTILLE DES ECUS (11) looks one of the more interesting contenders for a place.

Summary: KISS ME DU RABUTIN (1) proved far too good for her rivals at Amiens last time out and is likely to attract the bulk of the support. She will need to be wary of KADOLINE WEST (5), who is in excellent form ahead of her return to France, and KALIFORNIE (7), who has forged an effective partnership with her driver. KELIADE DE L'ITON (14) made a promising return to action when finishing sixth and should strip much fitter for that run, making her an interesting outsider.

KISS ME MENCOURT (1) has been faultless at this level and has also performed well in both key races, making her an obvious selection and a particularly solid proposition. KATUDI (7), who finished third in the key event over this course in the middle of the month, can be retained next ahead of KASANE DU BISET (2), who has been given time to freshen up.
