Volt 2140

6 Kiwee won her debut race despite having to do a lot of work on the outside. Certainly improved by that run - our pick. 10 Global Embassy had improved by the debut under the belt and finished strongly in the last run. Now it may be time for victory. 7 Knickers Sisu won her debut in November as a two-year-old. Back after a little break now and she should definitely be taken seriously here. 5 Nikita Boko has a slightly tricky number five to deal with in the circular start. If she avoids an error, she is possible.

3 Lauria Inferior S. won with a time of 1.12 over a short distance in only her fifth start last summer. Perfect position in the seasonal debut and top chance directly. 5 Figurine de Fer needed a race under her belt to be ready for victory in the last run. Comfortably in the lead in a quick finish - she is a challenger. 6 Gabriella Godiva ended last year with three gallops. Back after a break now but fast enough to be in the mix. 8 Jelly Bean Mearas should not be overlooked despite this difficult position behind the starting gate.

10 Everest Doc has taken the lead early in both of his previous starts but has been defeated. Now he will attack from behind instead. 3 Caughtredhanded was not empty when he galloped in the lead half a lap from the finish in the last run. With a good position in this race, he should be watched. 7 Dats Tore had a good run on the inside on Örebro and was not far from winning. He is expected to improve with the race under his belt.14 Champagne Trot is tricky. New driver, and should be considered if he is at his best.

Volt 2140

11 Everon stepped up early outside the leader in his last race but lost a lot in the end. However, he can do much better and should normally have a good chance to win. 7 Beauvoir won easily in the last run after a nice journey. Tricky with an inside post on the handicap now, but Kihlström usually solves such situations well. 8 Martin V. performed well despite a starting gallop in the last run, indicating that his form is not in danger. He could defeat many horses with a bit of luck in this race. 1 Joyful Argos is more strong than fast. If he finds a way out in time, he could still win the race.

RACE 5

Auto 2140

10 Viento is a very good trotter for the monté discipline who has started the season with two impressive victories. He won easily on the stretch in the last run and is our pick once again. 5 Loaded Noah won his saddle debut two starts ago, with Jonathan Carre aboard. Although he was held back in his recent sulky start, he is still considered an early contender. 7 Country Sound may not be the most consistent horse, but when he gets going, he has the speed to compete with the best. He won five out of seven monté starts last year and should be followed here. 1 Åcknes Elliot won three straight monté races in January-February and should not be overlooked in this race either.

3 Maco Toro won his debut race impressively and was unlucky not to get a clear run in his last race. He seems to be developing well and has a good starting position in this race. 1 Kong du Dalm was going well in his last race on Klosterskogen before making a mistake on the last backstretch. He looks like he is close to his first win.
4 Custom Charly A.F. did a lot of work outside the leader in his last race but still held on well to finish second. He has a good starting position and is an early contender. 9 Com Isidor had six starts as a two-year-old without winning, but he was matched against tough opponents.

RACE 7, V86-2

Auto 2140

12 Even Younger has really found his style and is on a good development curve. He had a strong finish in just under 1.13,0 in his last race, making him the top pick despite this number. 6 Buzzed Driving is a big and strong type who is improving with each start. It's interesting that he will probably run without hind shoes here. 8 Brilliantsky set a new record over a short distance in his last race, so his form is good. However, he'll need some luck with this number eight. 4 In Love Mearas is approaching his first win of the year and is an outsider in this race.

RACE 8, V86-4

Volt 3140

12 Certainly performed well from a difficult post position in his last V75-race. He stands the long distance and faces nice conditions here. Our winner. 3 Global Above All made an early mistake in the last run. However, he is strong and has got a nice number. Is normally reliable and should be considered early. 10 Golden Guard made his debut for a new trainer in the last run and won directly. He led in that race but has a different number now. Nevertheless, he should still be taken into account. 2 Boke Palema can perform better than he has shown in his recent races. He is strong enough to stand the three laps and should not be overlooked.

RACE 9, V86-6

Auto 2140

2 Corazon de B. is a type of horse we like. He won his seasonal debut in an impressive way and now got a perfect position. We believe he will be the toughest and win again. 1 Dallas caused a surprise by winning convincingly in his last visit on Solvalla. He can open fast, but now the distance is half a lap longer.
9 Jack is Back performs well every time and handles all positions and distances. If the pace is good, he will finish strongly again. 3 Air Space got stuck between horses with some energy left in the last run and could cause a surprise with some luck.

2 Balotelli Face won immediately in his seasonal debut after taking over the lead in the middle of the race. Presumably even sharper now and this number is perfect. 10 Michigan Bro is a winner type who had to do a lot of tough work in his last race. We think he should be counted early again. 5 Real Scotch has won eight out of twelve starts. Didn't quite enjoy the surface in the last run and could very well start a new winning streak here. 4 Agassi Broline had not started for a long time before the last start and should be significantly sharper this time around.
