GBI RACINGGoing: Firm (Good to Firm in places)

Left handed, the round course is an elongated oval track, just over twelve furlongs in extent. Bath is the highest course in the country, with no watering system, so the ground can get very firm during a dry spell. Prominent racers have a better record than those ridden more patiently, but any advantage decreases as the trip increases.

Proved at least as good as ever as she made a winning reappearance at Wolverhampton (5f) last month. Below par on penultimate start but this 3-time C&D winner was beaten less than a length when fourth of 6 here (5f, firm) on Monday and will have a live chance if turned out again.

Havana Grey filly who deservedly got her head in front for the first time when narrowly landing a C&D handicap (good) in October. 3 lb rise fair and, with her yard in good form with its jumpers in recent weeks, she will be a danger to all if fully tuned up following 6 months off.

Both career wins gained over 6f at Wolverhampton for Marco Botti, latterly in January. Mixed bag since joining present yard and she hasn't shone in 3 previous starts on turf.

Twice a winner on the all-weather (both over 5f at Lingfield) and has remained in good form since latest success in February. Conditions perhaps not ideal when fourth of 12 back on turf last time at Musselburgh (it was soft on that occasion and she's previously performed well on good/good to firm).

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A first success on turf could be on the cards for THECOFFEEPODDOTCO, who wasn't seen to best effect (and may not have been ideally suited by the soft ground) when fourth in a higher-grade handicap at Musselburgh last time and she's been eased 1 lb since. Moe's Legacy was a close-up fourth over 5f here on Monday and, with this slightly longer trip a big plus, she will be a big threat if allowed to take her chance. Silver Wraith, a C&D winner when last seen in the autumn, also has claims.

Yet to add to 2-y-o debut success but arrives here on the back of decent placed efforts in 5f Wolverhampton handicaps. The first-time cheekpieces he sported on latter occasion are retained and should be on the premises.

Dual C&D winner in 2023 and snapped a losing run making all to land a 6f Chepstow handicap in pretty decisive fashion in September. Didn't shape badly on recent reappearance here (5.7f, good to soft) and she's a major player.

6 5 SOME NIGHTMARE (IRE) (20) (D) s 93

Added to his career haul with a couple of victories at Chepstow last season and placed on a few occasions on the all-weather in recent months. However, latest effort wasn't one of his better ones and others look stronger here.

BETTING FORECAST:

5-2 Binadham, 11-4 Connie's Rose, 10-3 Cayman Tai, 6-1 Rogue Bullet, 14-1 Some Nightmare, 25-1 Law of Average

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Having shaped pretty well in a stronger handicap on her recent reappearance, CONNIE'S ROSE looks the way to go. She is entitled to come on for that and could prove hard to catch back down in trip, as well as class. Rogue Bullet scored on the back of a similar period of absence on his return last season, so the lack of a recent run is unlikely to be an issue. He is feared most ahead of Cayman Tai and Binadham.

Successful over this trip on the all-weather last month and opened turf account at the fifth attempt here (1m, good to soft) recently. 4 lb rise fair and likely to again be in the thick of things, provided she again gets a decent pace to aim at and proves equally effective on this faster ground.

2 2 RACING DEMON (195) (C) 96

Winless since bagging a 1m handicap here in September 2024 and, though runner-up 3 times over this trip last season, he ended 2025 on a major downer and is not one to trust implicitly given his reluctance.

3 6 SILKIES SIB (IRE) (4) (D) 99
32213636 6 9-6 | 59.9kg

Gained reward for consistency when winning at Chelmsford in February and largely acquitted himself well since, most recently finishing a respectable sixth of 14 back on turf at Leicester (1¼m, good to firm) on Saturday. Couldn't rule out.

Rarely seen on turf nowadays and while has been performing fairly well on the all-weather of late, it's easy enough to look elsewhere in search of the likely winner of this.

5 1 WHITELEY WAY (35) 99
3224-6852 5 9-1 | 57.6kg

Gary Brown

Rossa Ryan

Remains a maiden after 19 runs attempts on the Flat but she has hit the crossbar on a number of occasions, including when going agonisingly close at Kempton (1m) last month. Has run well both previous starts over 9.5f (unraced beyond that on the level) but this trip round here may stretch her.

6 4 CHOURMO (65) (D, BF) 97
28655-643 6 8-11 | 55.8kg

Dan Horsford

Without a win last year but has slipped down the weights as a consequence and he made the frame in a couple of 9.5f classified events at Wolverhampton in February. Conditions in his favour now returned to turf and a bold show could be on the way.

7 5 ENDOFASTORM (IRE) (2) (C) 89
135-76662 7 8-9 | 54.9kg

Joe Ponting

David Probert

Notched second win over 13f here in September and returned to form back at this course following a break when second in an 8-runner handicap (11.6f, firm) on Monday. Plenty of use was made of her on that occasion and a similar scenario is likely down to this trip, if she takes her chance.

7 DECLARED RUNNERS

TIMEFORM VIEW:

If she goes to post ENDOFASTORM could take some catching back at this trip after giving it a good shot from the front in an 11.6f handicap off this mark here on Monday, leading from flag fall until she was headed around a furlong from home. That said, if she does go off hard that will help Eutropia, who made it 2 wins from her last 3 starts when arriving late on the scene over a mile here 12 days ago. Adrian Wintle's charge is a much-respected main danger, with Chourmo also entitled to respect.

Patrick Chamings David Probert
C&D winner on his reappearance last term and went on to bag another 2 handicaps at Chepstow and Salisbury during the summer. Lost all chance at the start back here on first start of this season and while a line can be drawn through that run, others make more appeal all the same.

2 3 SIGNCASTLE CITY (IRE) (22) (CD) ★ 100
4-6721540 6 9-9 | 61.2kg

Richard Hannon Joe Leavy
Ended a losing run at Chelmsford (7f) in February and wasn't seen to best effect at the same course on his next 2 starts. No obvious excuses when down the field at Southwell last time but he was a C&D winner on sole previous visit here and his current mark is an attractive one.

3 6 MAGICAL MERLIN (IRE) (28) s+t 96
350/2422-8 6 9-5 | 59.4kg

Harry Charlton Millie Wonnacott (5lb/2kg)
Losing run stretches back to 2023 but made the frame all 4 appearances last year and reappearance spin at Kempton at the beginning of the month was probably needed. Down to a career-low mark and he's by no means discounted.

4 5 REDREDROBIN (293) (C) 93
245/36259- 9 9-4 | 59.0kg

Malcolm Saunders Lewis Edmunds
Latest win was gained off a 2 lb lower mark at Chepstow in August 2024. Placed twice during a truncated campaign last season but well held on latest start at Epsom and intended to need the run following a 9-month absence.

5 2 PRODIGAL SON (140) b 97
7/540958- 4 9-0 | 57.2kg

Looks pretty modest judged on what he's shown in his 7 starts to date and hopes now pinned on the change of headgear (first-time blinkers replace cheekpieces) sparking improvement.

6 4 MY AMBITION (IRE) (33) (CD) ✓ 99
8584130-2 7 8-9 | 54.9kg

Denis Coakley Hollie Doyle
Has won 3 times over this C&D and made the frame on 3 of his 4 visits to this course in 2025. Solid second from the front on return to action on the all-weather at Lingfield last month and should make a bold bid to go one better.

13-8 My Ambition, 3-1 Signcastle City, 11-2 Magical Merlin, 17-2 Darvel, 10-1 Redredrobin, 18-1 Prodigal Son

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The one who appeals most is MY AMBITION, who likes it here and he made a positive start to the present campaign when runner-up at Lingfield off this mark last month. It's likely that Signcastle City will also come to the fore, provided that he's able to shrug off a disappointing effort last time, while Magical Merlin should come on for his pipe-opener at Kempton and is also likely to have a say.

Encouraging debut third in 7f Salisbury novice in October but has failed to build on that in 3 subsequent starts, for all that she wasn't entirely disgraced on return/handicap debut over this C&D 12 days ago. It could be that a stiffer test is what she needs.

Signs of ability when third on last summer's debut in a 7f Yarmouth novice but well held next time (final start for Alice Haynes) and didn't show much in 2 starts for TJ Kent. Probably best watched on first run for another new yard.

Well held all 3 starts during the winter and, having been gelded, he didn't find much improvement when coming home seventh of 12 on handicap debut at Southwell (1m) earlier this month. Still, he has to enter calculations in a race of this nature now switched to turf.

3159-U884 4 9-4 | 59.0kg

 Adrian Wintle Finley Marsh
C&D winner around this time last year and added to his tally at Wolverhampton (7f) in December. Emerged from a spell in the doldrums when fourth on his return to turf here last time and on a good mark if building on that.

 David Flood Hollie Doyle
Made a winning debut for his current yard at Chelmsford (1¼m) in February and got back on track in refitted tongue tie last 2 starts, though still seeking his first win in a handicap.

Left handed, the round course is an elongated oval track, just over twelve furlongs in extent. Bath is the highest course in the country, with no watering system, so the ground can get very firm during a dry spell. Prominent racers have a better record than those ridden more patiently, but any advantage decreases as the trip increases.

175662-52 4 9-8 | 60.8kg

Grace Harris Rossa Ryan
Sole career success came over C&D off this mark last summer. Better for return when creditable second over C&D 12 days ago and can go well again.

64090-903 5 9-8 | 60.8kg

Adrian Wintle Finley Marsh
Remains a maiden after 18 starts but posted easily his most encouraging effort for current yard when third over C&D last month, running on having been left with plenty to do. Runner up that day has tasted success since and he's one to consider from further reduced mark.

4 3 BAYNOONA (IRE) (24) (CD) 97
8674135-5 5 9-3 | 58.5kg

Susan Gardner Millie Wonnacott (5lb/2kg)
C&D winner on good to soft in September. Respectable return here 24 days ago and entitled to build on that.

5 6 GRAND HARBOUR (50) 93

Joe Ponting Rob Hornby
Long-standing maiden who remains easy to oppose.

REDHOT WHISPER looks ready to finally break his duck having caught the eye off his reduced mark over C&D last time. Oasis Sunrise is a solid alternative, with Baynoona best of the others.
