Summary : MUBAALEGH (1) could be the answer in a very open race. He was a nice fourth at Fontainebleau in a Class 2 race on his most recent outing and can get back in the winner's circle here. LESSLEPASSER (3) has been in top shape of late, with a win two runs ago at Fontainebleau over 1100m and a good second on his most recent appearance at that same venue in a Class 1 race over the 1100m, he can have a role to play. SASSY RASCAL (5) needs to bounce back from a few below-par efforts but is capable on her day. TOIJK (2) should make the frame.

- 7. KING GOLD - Got the race when AMILCAR (2) jinked and slightly impeded his run, he was a closing second at the line on the last run at this track over 1400m last month. It is hard to say if he would have won with a trouble-free run. Not to be overlooked
- 8. ABHAYAA - Out of the frame on the last two starts. 2nd four runs back in a Listed race at Compiègne over 2000m. Others preferred

Summary : A winner last time at this track and then demoted AMILCAR (2) was a shade unlucky to lose that race and can make amends and win this. EGOT (5) is on the upgrade and recent success at Listed level was a good performance over 1200m, he poses the main threat. KING GOLD (7) benefited from the jink of AMILCAR (2) when he was second to him over course and distance last month, as he got the race awarded to him by the stewards. He is another to be progressing and can not be ruled out of being involved. DANELO (3) could make the frame if getting back to his best.

Summary : A nice effort when fourth at this track in a Class 1 race last month BLESS (6) can be too strong for his rivals. He was a narrow second to MARHABA YA SANAFI before his last outing, who went on and won the Group 1 Poule d'Essai Des Poulains. IFACH (2) is getting better and was a game-winner at Saint-Cloud over 1600m on May 5th in a Class 2 race. SPEECHMAN (7) needs more than his most recent effort to win, but he does enter calculations, as does COLOMBIER (1) who could be anything and can only improve off his debut win at Chantilly last month.

Summary : EREVANN (1) got a bit tired when third on his most recent outing at Saint-Cloud in a Group 2 over 1600m at the start of May. A winner of the Qatar Prix Daniel Wildenstein last October at this venue, he can be cherry ripe for this event and is the main selection. LIGHT INFANTRY (3) turns out only 9 days after finishing out of the frame in the Group 1 Lockinge Stakes at Newbury. A good third before that at Newmarket over 1600m gives him every chance of making an impact. FACTEUR CHEVAL (6) was just ahead of EREVANN (1) when they met at Saint-Cloud when he was second. If he relaxes he is a major player. A good second to Epsom Derby winner ADAYAR in a Group 3 race at Newmarket when last seen, ANMAAT (5) can not be ruled out of being in the shake-up.
