TIMEFORM VIEW:

The three that finished in front of MY GREAT MATE in a Grade 2 novice hurdle at Navan on his latest run in December have all done plenty for the form since, not least the winner The Yellow Clay, who went on to land a Grade 1 the following month and then went close in another at the Cheltenham Festival. If My Great Mate takes to fences at the first attempt he will take plenty of stopping. King of Kingsfield is second choice ahead of promising hurdles debut winner Great Attitude.

Going: Nh: Good; flat: Yielding

Galway is a right-handed track with a circuit of just over a mile and a quarter. There is a steep incline to the finish, but unless the ground is particularly testing the track is essentially sharp in character. The finishing straight is short at little more than a furlong. A low draw at 7f and 1m 100yds is a slight advantage.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

ALPHA CAPTURE shaped with plenty of encouragement at Leopardstown in June and is best not judged on his subsequent Killarney run where he was poorly placed. Imposing Supreme is a Galway specialist with 4 wins here and ran respectably after a 10-month absence. Apache Outlaw continues to fall in weights and may take advantage.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The vote goes to the 9-y-o LOINGSEOIR, who again shaped well when sixth in a 14-runner handicap over 1¼m at the Curragh last month, despite things not panning out for him. This drop back in trip is unlikely to be an issue and he is appealing off a workable mark. Everylittlestep returned to form when runner-up at Leopardstown last time and she rates the main danger ahead of recent all-weather scorer Rampage.
