7 Max makes his debut. Qualified well in France in November and seems to be well prepared. Nicklas Korfitsen usually has his horses in good shape. 9 Loui LC has shown that he likes to compete at Skive and is undefeated after two starts. Early choice. 8 Ludvig Cash has made two starts at Nyköbing Falster and been strong, but the opposition has been quite easy. Tougher this time but possible anyway. 12 Litinni Surprise is not completely reliable, but owns quite good capacity.

2 Point Of Perfect was really nice in his debut for Flemming Jensen. He should be even better now and has top chance to win. 5 Thinker Monkey has a run under his belt after a long layoff. Could be improved and is the main challenger to our pick. 4 Go On Gardenia has done well in tough company most of the time. Doesn't win very often nowadays and is possible behind the big favorite. 3 Alvin C.G. faces much tougher competitors than he is used to. Maybe a place bet.

1 Kollund Möbler has the right attitude and the lead is worth a lot in this type of race. She hasn't started for a month since last time but the stable reports are good. 7 Hokita has been consistent and good in tough companies and is going down in class here. Met Glorious Rain last time who is one of Scandinavia's best mares. 8 Eva's Yankee is gifted and makes an exciting debut for Flemming Jensen. 3 Kleopatra S.F. made it to the Danish Stochampionatet last autumn and won very easily from the lead in the last race.

3 Gingerbel Brofont has started her career well in Belgium and shown good speed. She has now been trained by Flemming Jensen for two months where she has shown speed in the training. This short distance is perfect and the opposition is easy. 1 Kaos shows the right attitude. Is more strong than fast. Will hardly be able to hold the lead from here. 6 Kandis Spring has not started since last summer but shown good speed. Is working well for the new trainer. 9 Kaiser Svendka is working really well too.

9 Lifestyle has a tricky number over the short distance but is still our pick in this open race. He has been racing well in Sweden lately and met better opponents and the last impression was very strong. 5 Hej Bork has been matched against quite good horses and showed the right attitude in the last race. Barefoot behind and ear plugs now are a plus and the trainer is optimistic. 4 Kopper Dust is a very quick starter and a good sprinter. He had not raced for a while before last time. 1 Lipstick Lies can open fast as well. Nice number.

3 Kalles Krisbe Notz has not started for two months but he is working strongly. He is fast behind the gate and has a nice task here. Also barefoot now. 7 Freiherr Faust is a nice horse that is always heavily backed, but he did just alright last time in a six-horse field on a tricky track. 6 Jane Hall is very good for this field and finished ahead of Freiherr Faust three races ago in a good time. 4 Thewinnertakeitall is well-bred and was really good as a youngster but has not developed as expected.

5 Warren Buffet won nicely from the front two starts back but made a more modest impression in the last race. He will compete with a Norwegian bridle for the first time now and there is a reasonable chance that he can take the lead. 7 Jacobite looked really nice in his first race for new trainer Kasper Foget and had to run from the outside of the leader in the last race. The horse should be improved. American bike now. 9 Nashville Petnic has started twice in Denmark and won both races. 12 Pebbles Stone is a handsome horse making his debut on Danish soil.

3 Forest Jet is a quick starter and ideally drawn here. Two starts back he took the lead and had to open very fast over the full distance but he followed really well. Good chance in this field. 6 Klinton has done brilliantly every time in tough companies this autumn. Easier horses this time. 10 Know Your Shadow has made a couple of early mistakes lately. Different bridle now and the horse is working well. 4 Koogoo Gaagaa met slightly easier opponents in the last race and won easily from the front.
