5 Underbarosåfin put in two good efforts in August. Had a number in the second line in the last Solvalla race and was unplaced behind a couple of tough opponents. Much easier horses this time and good chance. 2 Zätas Forever Star got locked in three starts back and did not get a real chance in the last run either sixth up. Is better than the latest results show. 3 Bill Gates was third in the last short distance race and could be in the mix here. On the way up. 6 Made by Vitsand has good speed and likes this distance.

2 Love of Mine scored a nice victory over the short distance in April and she is good for this kind of race. She can open fast with this circular start and should have a good chance here. 7 Blue Bell has scored all four wins together with Krister Söderholm. Interesting number and they should be considered early. 11 Baltic Dawn has been up and down the last couple of months. If she is at her best she should not be overlooked here. 10 Soraya Ås set a new record in the last circular start and is fast enough to be in the mix here.

11 Twins Lily has scored three wins and won easily every time. She is good for this company and our pick here. 8 Bottnas Impuls won easily in the lead two starts back and finished fast to third in the last run. He has done well this season and should be considered. 3 Southridgeclayborn has shown good form lately and is an early contender together with his trainer. All wins so far have been scored with him. 2 Nitro Vrijthout prefers to run in the front where he has scored all four wins.

15 Importedfrmdetroit faced a handicap over the short distance in the last run but put in a nice final lap. Middle distance now and he could finish to victory here. 12 Doctor Doxey Zenz is in quite good shape and comes from a nice performance. If he is at his best he should be considered early in this company. 13 Julia Trix Treasure was not used to the distance in the last run but did alright. He has one race under his belt now. Shorter distance this time and early contender. 10 Fabian B.R. has got a new driver and could be in the mix as well here.
