2 Global Delicious won her debut and made a good impression. If she handles this number two, she should have a good chance of winning again. 11 Flaps Out qualified as a two-year-old and is now making his racing debut. Back row draw but with the right journey he will be in the mix right away. 5 Hermine Ima has a tricky starting position in her first race of her career. She did well in the qualifier and can go far if she avoids a mistake here. 6 Van Dijk has been heavily backed in all his starts without delivering. He is making his second appearance for a new trainer here.

2 Selene Race was not far from reaching the victory last time when she found room with 200 meters to go. Has been a non-starter after that, but is still our top pick with this nice number. 5 Ares Maanos is chasing his first win. His seasonal debut last time should have brought him forward, and with the right trip, it might be his time to shine here. 9 Stensjös Farit has galloped a lot lately, but when he avoids a mistake, he has the speed to compete well in this class. Should be considered. 3 Waco Sixx put in a decent race from the lead last time with Jepson - an outsider.

12 Digital Globe competed in tougher fields than this last year. Hard to predict after the gallop 450 meters from the finish in the seasonal debut, but should normally pass many horses here. 2 Handluggage Racing can do better than what the results show at the moment. If he handles this number two, he could be in the mix in this race. 14 Generator made her debut for Team Untersteiner last time but galloped. She is fast enough to fight for victory in this company. 6 Crossfit L.B. has an interesting number with this fast-starting driver. Could lead this for a long time.
