4 Olli Boko took two wins in a row after winter training before he came in second last time after a strong finish. Barefoot now for the first time this year. 2 Punchboard won the comeback two races ago but galloped in the last race and was not at his best. Owns high capacity but does not always trot well. 7 Hercules Godiva has two wins in a row and has good capacity when he is at his best. 5 Fantom Jet did well as fifth in the last race but is not always reliable.

5 Global Emperor has done very well since moving to Jennifer Persson where he has stabilized since he started competing under the saddle. Is our pick. 8 Chill of Mine is in good form and will now make his debut under the saddle together with Jonathan Carre. Should be considered early but faces tough conditions money-wise. 7 Xanthis Jones won the ridden debut two starts back but galloped in the last sulky race. Could cause an upset. 3 Mark Newman will compete barefoot for the first time which is definitely interesting.

1 Montanaro will make his seasonal debut here but the training reports from Daniel Redén are good. He was castrated during the winter and is the clear favorite for the lead. 2 German Kaiser started with two straight gallops before taking three straight wins in good style. Has to be considered. 6 Flat Tire Grue scored a very good win two starts back and was heavily backed in the V85 last time but galloped. 14 Västerbo Pentax followed well behind a top horse in the last race and is going down in class. Magnus A Djuse again.

5 O.P.'s Sam made a very good effort from the lead last time when he won with 13.5 full lengths from the front. He has three out of three from there and is our pick. 4 M.T.Urus followed well after a tough journey in the last race, outside the leader at quick pace. Good lane now behind the gate. 3 Pechora Boko made a good seasonal debut but has been a scratch since then. Has a good starting position and should get a trip in front. 9 Nova J.C. is chasing the first win ever and it should come soon.

1 Charming Laura has won seven of eleven starts on Swedish soil and done very well. Has four out of five over the short distance and three out of three in the lead. 4 Good Reads scored a very good win in the last over-paced race at Solvalla. Barefoot this time and an early choice. 2 Ronja Muscles is a strong horse and a good finisher. Interesting over the sprint distance now from a good starting position. 11 Önas Tindra is a sharp finisher who will now compete barefoot again.
