Will be seen with a good chance. 5 Bilbao Ace has really shown top form and will now go barefoot and with an american bike. One of the hotter ones here. 1 Mare Mareh galloped in the last race but is not usually uncertain. Does it consistently and well most of the time. Guaranteed a nice trip. 3 Duke is acting a bit unevenly but can do a lot.

5 Dee Godfather has been really strong under the saddle lately. He is a very capable breed who seems to have found exactly the right style. Should be seen with a good chance in this group, although there is no shortage of opposition in the 20 metre handicap. 7 Cab Frontline does it consistently and well every time. Comes into the match at the slightest luck. 8 Månskenstösen was closely defeated by Make It Schermer in the last race. If the backs are right it could be enough. 2 Hemisphere is capable, but up and down.

Exciting with an American bike and Ulf Ohlsson. 13 Farmens Riska has a run under his belt after a long layoff. Very fast and can be dangerous with the right backs. 2 Guli Sanna is a 4-year-old who meets older opponents but she is developing strongly.

8 Mellby Mowgli suffered his first defeat in the last race. His effort was good though and the form should be even better now. Is both strong and fast. Our pick. 6 BlaBlaBlaa held well from the lead in the last race. Hadn't raced for two months before that and will move forward by that run under his belt. Is a quick starter and has a nice chance of reaching the front. Once there the horse will fight for victory. 5 Dropthegloves is coming more and more. Has been really good in the last two starts. 2 Dufлот is perfectly drawn.

9 Månlykke A.M. has not started for a few months, but he is one of the best cold blood horses. Has won the Swedish Championships four times before. Tricky number and a longer layoff are question marks, but the horse should have a good chance anyway. 1 Järvsöodin hadn't started for a while before the last race, when he still won. Stands the distance, no matter how it is run. Has to be considered. 2 Ulvsåsen is starting to grow into the elite. Is in top form and can definitely win the race. 8 Bäcklös Uriel was really nice at Skellefteå.

Interesting with the change of sulky this time. 2 Ikaros Brick is fast enough to be in the fight for victory and has the capacity to be in the mix here. 5 Engine Kronos is a quick starter and will be fitted with a head bar for the first time to improve his style. 12 Joker Ima was in the E3 final earlier this year and he was really nice in the last race.

4 Loxahatchee is very speedy. Is a quick starter and he is the favorite for the lead in the race. He has raced in that position on two occasions on Swedish soil. Both starts have ended in victory. 5 Eagle Rock has been improved a lot for Daniel Redén. In the last race he won very nicely from the outside of the leader. From a nice starting position he challenges our pick. 10 Ready Star is heavily disadvantaged by the starting position but he is in top form. 12 Kingen Mearas is possible for victory too.

2 Fabulous Boy is developing well. He finished last time with energy left. The horse is a quick starter, but is just as good from behind. Has to be considered regardless of position. 7 Nickel Occagnes is a real winning machine that just keeps getting better and better. Despite this lane on the outside of the main rivals, he should have a good chance of winning. 1 Fantom Jet has got a tricky number here but he has enough capacity and speed to win this. 3 Crowe Motion competes with an American bike and without shoes.
