4 Plantstepsdream had put in many nice efforts in the miler elite but has not won yet this year. Our pick in this Ulriksdals Minneslöpning. 6 Falkor convinced a lot in the Golden Division in the last race after a layoff and won comfortably. Has to be considered early with a similar effort. 2 Running Rolf scored a close but convincing win ahead of Chianti in the last Michel Kahns Minneslöpning over these conditions. 7 Ellis St Martin is the title holder in this handicap but faces tougher conditions this year. Place chance.

4 Nikki St Martin faces nice circumstances here and is ridden by a good jockey in this wide open amateur handicap. Contender. 6 Movere has earlier won over this distance together with Elin Ahlin even if that was on turf. Main challenger. 1 Menina is in good shape and possible here despite this longer distance and tough weight. Challenger if she handles that. 7 Moloch Sacc has not won yet after 16 attempts but been on the way up lately. Could cause a surprise.

4 No Short Cuts is still developing. Our pick in this open Songline Classic. 5 Gold Tyranny was second in this race last year and is an early contender here if the eight-year-old lives up to his capacity. 1 Master Bloom has shown good form after a mediocre start of the season. Possible here even if the gelding prefers the green surface. 3 Espen Hill was just closely defeated in Stockholm Cup and could be in the mix here with the right journey.
