6. RB NAIF - Unraced son of Baseq Al Khalediah out of a Burning Sand mare that never raced nor won. Could be anything and good enough to go close first up

14. YAFI - Is a likely outsider and should need the run and others should be stronger. Happy to ignore this time

Summary: ARCTYC DE TESE (5) holds an entry in a Group 2 at the end of August and comes from a very competitive yard in this division. He can be slightly preferred to the well-related NERCI D (9) who gets the service of Ioritz Mendizabal for top-trainer François Rohaut. Both MISTER DE BOZOULS (11) and RB NAIF (6) come from a yard that is always competitive with newcomers and those two can also be given some consideration.

Summary: A cosy Class 2 winner at Tarbes last time out, MANEKI (6) is a nice horse on the making and could take a power of beating. He is the only three years old in the race and gets a valuable weight allowance. A game 5th in a Group 2 in Germany last May, SIR SILJAN (4) looks the biggest threat to the selection. AGADOR (3) enjoyed a boost of confidence in a small race on sand last time out and must be closely monitored back on turf. THE TOP GATSBY (5) is unbeaten in two starts at this course.
