2. AL DAAYEN - Zelzal colt with a strong maternal pedigree, as his dam is a daughter of the 1996 Group I Prix de Diane winner Sil Sila. Keep safe

3. MIA MAN - Almanzor colt out of THE well-performed Cool Esprit, who never finished worse than 3rd. Respected

6. MOTY MARC - Motivator colt trained by Florian Bellemere and to be ridden on debut by Clément Lecoeuvre. Outsider

Summary : This opening event for unraced two-year-old colts and geldings could go the way of well-bred COLUMBUS (4), a son of Oasis Dream and Group III-placed Cribbs Causeway, who represents the Christophe Ferland stable which has been in very good form of late. SHOLTO (1) has already been gelded but is also well-related, as his dam and sister have both performed well in Listed races, so a forward showing from this son of Shalaa wouldn't come as a surprise. MIA MAN (3) and AL DAAYEN (2) are not taken lightly either, as their trainers have become known for readying their youngsters to be competitive on debut.

Summary : SEE YOU AROUND (5) finished 2nd on debut and has confirmed that promise with back-to-back recent victories. She beat a good field at Toulouse last time and, with any amount of improvement, ought to take this step up in class in her stride. Debut scorer DYPTIQUE (9) bounced right back to winning ways at Chantilly recently, beating the experienced Dance Sioux, and is likely to fight for victory again. ARISAIG (4) was a facile winner on debut at Chelmsford and could be anything, so must be respected/included. Improving last-start winners INDIE BRIGHT (8) and SHOWPOWER (1) are also capable of having a say in the outcome to this competitive Listed event.

- 1. BEHTAR - Consistent colt with sound form references. Was extremely unlucky when finishing 6th here in August and has remained consistent/competitive in two outings since - has obvious claims
- 2. CICCIO BOY - An honest hard-knocker and fibresand specialist who achieved deserved success in a race of reference on this course last month. Up 3kg for that win but should make his presence felt
- 3. AMI SOLEDAD - Left Julien Phelippon's stable to join Sascha Smrczek in the spring and has won 3 handicaps since, but been penalized 10,5kg in total as a result. Others make more appeal
- 4. PRINCIPE - Was penalized 2kg after winning a conditions race at Argentan last time in his first attempt at 1900m. Ought to remain competitive
- 5. KATOUCHA - Won a Listed race on this course last year and proved her competitiveness in this category at ParisLongchamp recently. Will be a factor
- 6. PRECIOUS SEA - Regally bred filly who had Classic aspirations in her early days. Has been costly to follow this year but remains more than capable so cannot be written off in her first start on this surface
- 7. THE CHARMER - Made an encouraging reappearance after almost a year of absence and has proven himself to be competitive in this category. Has never disappointed on PSF but may not be sufficiently fit
- 8. BEVAN - Winner of two Quinté+ events this year but, as a result, has no margin at this handicap value and is more effective on the turf. Others preferred
- 9. QITURA - Performed remarkably as a three-year-old, when 2nd in a Listed race, but has been beset by health issues. Absent since May and faces hardened older rivals here - best watched for now
- 10. INDIAN PACIFIC - Has continued to acquit himself competitively/consistently despite getting long in the tooth, like many Patrice Cottier inmates. Confirmed on this course and at this level, so is respected
- 11. UZEL - A model of consistency on the PSF and has improved considerably this year given a sterner test of his stamina. Proven at this level and over this track and trip, so has a winning chance
- 12. DANTES - Was returning from a two-month absence when finishing an encouraging 2nd at Argentan behind PRINCIPE (4). Inconsistent but has proven himself capable at this handicap value
- 13. PONT MIRABEAU - Possesses a potent turn of foot and produced some spectacular finishes last year. Caught the eye when finishing 4th on his return at Bordeaux and should improve to be competitive here
- 14. GIVE ME GOLD - Looked better than ever when winning a handicap last time, a performance that earned her a 3kg penalty. Has a lot more on her plate now

SUNDAY, 05/11/23

15. TRUE TEDESCO - Failed in three previous appearances at this level before finishing a shock 3rd in a similar race at 53/1 last month on the turf at ParisLongchamp. Must now confirm in his first start on PSF

16. SAINT ETIENNE - Made a winning handicap debut in his one and only start on PSF in August. Improved to finish 3rd at this level last time but faces his elders here for the first time - has only a place chance

Summary : A typically competitive Quinte+ event in which several runners have leading claims. However, none make more appeal than fibresand specialist UZEL (11) who has found his niche lately racing beyond a mile on this surface. He proved his competitiveness in two similar races over this course and distance recently with this handicap value and, on the strength of that form, is good value to reconnect with success. BEHTAR (1) is proving hard to win with but has maintained a good level of form and consistency, so also has a legitimate shot at victory. Both PRECIOUS SEA (6), who hasn't yet lived up to her prestigious origins but has sufficient means to be competitive at this level, and KATOUCHA (5), returning to the scene of her Listed race success, are others capable of fighting for victory. INDIAN PACIFIC (10), PONT MIRABEAU (13), PRINCIPE (4), and CICCIO BOY (2) complete the shortlist.

- 2. ZEROSTRESS - Consistent filly with sound form references and sufficient means to be competitive. Capable of getting into the picture
- 3. BREIZH EAGLE - No longer the force of old but did prove his competitiveness at this level by winning a Listed race on turf at Craon last time. Dark horse
- 4. BOLCHOI - Has won twice and finished 2nd twice at this venue over 1300m. Should have a role to play if as effective stretching out to this distance for the first time
- 5. NATIONAL SERVICE - Outclassed, although not disgraced, in a Group I race last time. Has run well in Group III races and is likely to be competitive at this level
- 6. PEDRITO - Consistent performer back on a career-high mark after winning a Quinte+ recently. Unplaced in a Listed race at this venue off his current rating last year, so has only a place chance here
- 7. SIAM PARAGON - Proven fibresand performer whose last three starts on this surface all ended in victory. Will be a factor
- 8. MIRSKY - Found wanting in his last two starts at this level and has no references on this surface. Upset potential
- 9. SIRONA - Won a handicap at Ayr last time out but this will require a great deal more of her and she has no references on this surface either

Summary : Having acquitted himself well in stronger races recently, FAST RAAJ (1) ought to resume winning ways. Despite finishing unplaced, he was far from disgraced in his last two starts, at Group II and Group I level, and this Listed race represents a significant drop in class that he should make the most of. NATIONAL SERVICE (5) also tried his luck at Group I level last time, in the Prix de la Foret, and finished a commendable 9th (of 14 runners). He ought to fare better in these calmer waters and is capable of posing a threat. SIAM PARAGON (7), excellent on the PSF, and track-specialist BOLCHOI (4), who stretches out beyond 1300m for the first time, are also capable of having a say. Good race!
