- 1. KRACUS DE GUEZ - Posted a promising first start effort before losing his stride on second attempt. Should redeem himself
- 2. KAPORAL DU PONT - Just the one place from eight starts and looks very vulnerable in a race of this nature. Best to pass over
- 3. KARNAC WOOD - A sound winner of his first start at Saint-Malo on 30 April and can follow up. The one to beat
- 4. KALYPSO ATOUT - Placed twice in three starts last year on turf. Good comeback run and top connections. Warrants some consideration with all shoes coming off
- 5. KEVISAN - Disappointed last start at Laval after two good placed efforts. Should be in the shake-up
- 6. KILLER BOND - Solid winner when off the mark at Laval on 12 May and is expected to confirm. Shortlisted
- 7. KING ROC - Went off the mark at Vannes on turf on second career start. Stiffer task assigned this time
- 8. KASHMIR JADOR - Placed twice in eight starts and last effort at Laval was solid. Can be the mix
- 9. KEROS DES BAUX - Went off the mark mid-May at Le Croisé-Laroche on fourth attempt. Has more to offer
- 10. KIMONO WIC - Went off the mark on second career start at Langon on 1st May. Has more to offer and cannot be ruled out

- 13. KAISER TURGOT - Won his first start at Lisieux mid April but failed to confirm at Laval next time out. Easier task assigned today

Summary : This looks a nice little race with some promising 3yo. The well-bred KARNAC WOOD (3) won well on debut at Saint-Malo and is taken to follow up before he goes on to much better things. KAISER TURGOT (13) is definitely better than his last run at Laval suggests and can be given another chance. KEROS DES BAUX (9) took a little bit of time to win his first race but he should win plenty more. KILLER BOND (6) left a good impression when he scored at Laval and is another one for the shortlist.

2. ICE TEA D'AXEL - Disqualified more often than not and is hard to make a case for based on modest only run in 2023
3. ISABELLA DREIVE - Very delicate mare whose recent efforts do little to inspire confidence. Not a priority
4. IASALA DE COQUERIE - Good last two runs in this code but this is a tougher assignment and others can be preferred
5. IRON BOY DE BUSSET - Comes in the race on a string of disappointing performances and is hard to make a case for despite top-connections
6. IAROSLAVA - Good class of a mare who is well entered on the front row. Pairs up with Mathieu Mottier and is hugely respected
7. ILIEN DE VRIE - Well beaten on re-entry under harness. Back to his preferred discipline under a new shoeing feature and can grab a place
8. INFINIE RIGOLOTE - Has done little of note for some time now and although all shoes come off, cannot be given much consideration

10. ILOVIROIZ DI LEONE - Has done nothing of note for a considerable period of time and is easily overlooked
11. ISBA DU DOUET - Very effective in this code and with stride in check, can be a major player in this line-up
12. ILEO PIERJI - Smart performer on both codes but can lose his stride from time to time. Has to be included in calculations though
13. ISIS WILD - Effective in this code and has been in good form of late. Cannot be excluded of the equation

Summary : IRONIE DE CHENU (8) is currently going through a purple patch and should once again play a feature role. She has to put up with a very poor draw on the front row but her task remains realistic INA DU PONT (6) is back on form and goes barefoot. She should be closely involved too. ICE HAUFOR (11) has been a tad disappointing recently but can bounce back anytime on a track that she relishes. - 11. ICEBERG DEL PHEDO - Poor recent form is probably reflective of his chances and can easily be passed over

Summary : INDIC (7) won well last time out at Le Croisé-Laroche and with the same shoeing feature applied today, it is easy to think that he can follow up with another victory. A consistent performer in this division, INFINITIF D'ERABLE (4) is another one who has a proper leading chance if he keeps focus on the job. The in-form INGMAN (3) has a good draw and can make his presence felt once again. ILESLOR DES KECHES (8) has been knocking hard at the door.
