THURSDAY, 03/07/25

18. HAROLD BERGIL - Unreliable and was 4th in claimer at Enghien over 2875m on 26 June. Might play a minor role at best

Summary: HAND FULL (16) showed his form and well-being when 2nd at Les Sables last month and a repeat of that performance should suffice in the opener. He will, however, have to thwart the likely challenge of HEROS DHELPA (12), who didn't go unnoticed last time, and familiar foe IBLIS GEMA (13) who was not disgraced when 6th in the same Les Sables event behind the selection. GOOD JULINO (17), unshod on all four, and IDEAL DE BAULON (10) could challenge for a spot on the podium.

She was disqualified in her latest appearance at Ecommoy but, judged on her best references, needs only to prove herself diligent to make amends against this opposition. Recent Laval runner-up LUEUR D'HAUFOR (6) will likely fight for victory and expose any chinks in the selection's armour. LOKIE KADESH (15), an interesting entry under these conditions, and LASKA DU LIVIER (11), unshod for this occasion, are others with genuine Top 3 credentials. L'UNIQUE DE GINAI (9), a winner on her reappearance, and LILY BECO (14) also deserve a mention.
