6 Frankie Godiva is undefeated in Halmstad after five attempts. The latest three wins in the lead have been over 2140 meters. Last time he got past So Far Away Ås from the start and in the front he has a good chance to win. 3 So Far Away Ås has made three starts for trainer Hanna Lähdekorpi and now the horse will run barefoot and with an American bike. 1 Nugget Zon is up and down and doesn't like wet days. When he can compete at his best, he is really good. 8 Kron Vici Star may find it difficult to find the lead where he has taken nine of his eleven wins, but the form has been good lately.

6 Stensjös Pierh made his debut for Johan Untersteiner last time and was really good. Will certainly go for the front here and he should have a good chance to win. 7 Steel Panther was a bit tricky to turn around from lane seven in the debut, but he did well then just like in the last run. He seems to be able to open fast and is an early contender. 1 Bara Cash put in an improved effort last time and followed well from the outside of the leader finishing 15.5/1000. 9 Spirit Of Love has made two starts for this trainer and in the comeback last time he finished quite well a bit behind the top duo.

5 Fabror Melker has been matched against tough opponents lately and done well without winning. Is a fast starter but can also sprint well and in this field he should be able to do it tough. Our pick. 4 Flight To Paris can certainly do better than shown so far. He has got tougher training and should be considered. 8 Steady Victory is consistent and good. Barefoot is interesting. Easier opponents too and early contender for victory. 7 Kondor Dream prefers to trot at his own pace and if he comes smoothly to the outside of the leader, it can go his way.

4 Night Brodde faces ideal conditions here. He likes the short distance and from the lead he will not be easy to defeat. He is a lot better in the front and he faces easier opponents here than he uses to. 6 Heart of Steel had been a scratch before the last race and has now got a form-boosting run under his belt. Is a quick starter. 1 Dragster can also open well, but not always from this lane one. If the horse gets a nice trip on the inside and finds room at the end, he can sprint really fast. 3 Charliebrown Effe has good form, but is facing slightly tougher horses now.

3 Boreas makes an interesting seasonal debut. He finished last year with a fast finish behind Fiftyfour. The four-year-old is a quick starter and is our favorite for the lead. 7 Windmill Jam has got slightly different training before this start and if he lives up to his capacity, he could win this from the outside of the leader. 2 Star Cash ended last year by scoring a nice fourth spot from the lead in the Sylvester Race. He also makes his seasonal debut and he is not a very fast starter, even if he can open alright. 9 I Am Timmie has scored three nice wins in a row, but the opposition is getting tougher now.

4 Village Party has got a few runs under his belt and his form is on the way up. Lane four is perfect as he can open fast and the main goal for the five-year-old is to find the lead after a bit. 12 Patricia Bo followed strongly as second in V75 last time and has put in strong performances lately. 5 Notos has got a run under his belt now and should be improved by that. He is fast from the start and will now run barefoot - watch out! 8 Global Commission scored a strong victory second last and has good capacity for this class. He is more strong than fast and will be driven offensively.

3 Lives Matter will probably run barefoot for the first time and from this nice lane he could find an early lead. From there he is the horse to beat then - our pick. 2 Emirre won the seasonal debut after a strong finish and should move forward with that race. The capacity is high for this class and he should of course be counted early. 5 Arn Silvio won easily in the seasonal debut but last time he galloped. Good draw and he can do it tough. 7 Attitude Superb makes his seasonal debut and the form is difficult to judge. Is good enough to be in the mix directly here.
