1 Mercury Boko was not at his best last time, but prefers to run in the lead and we think he will get there this time. Good chance to lead this from start to finish. 5 Tug Of War galloped as beaten last time. Has good speed, but needs the lead or a trip from the back to perform at his best. 3 Capitano challenges our winner for the lead and if he succeeds it will not be easy to beat him. 7 CaravaggioJet uses to finish fast and can defeat many at the end with the right journey.

6 Stensjös Pierh has made two starts for the Untersteiner stable and most recently he took the first victory after a convincing performance. 2 Devs D.Rex is still missing a win. However, the performances have been good and the development is also going in the right direction. 5 Mitzy Power has been a scratch after the last time. If the horse is as good as before, she should not be counted out with the right journey. 1 Magic Wisdom has been improved lately and with a trip in front he should not be overlooked.

1 Celerity Broline will get some interesting changes today. If they turn out well, he has a good chance of leading all around. 2 Oberon Warframe has been improved for the new trainer, but can still do better than that. Barefoot now could be the solution. 9 Kingsman hasn't convinced for a while, but is basically the best horse in the field. 7 Eagle Trot is hardly in top form, but he is consistent and good and should not be discounted.

6 Giant Laser is a very quick starter and likes to run in the lead, which he also showed when he won last time. Will go for the front again! 7 Victoria LL is used to win (9 out of 22) and shows a great attitude. The five-year-old is all-round and has shown that she is an early contender in her class even in the V75. 2 OMHighstep does not win often (2 out of 67), but is consistent and tough. Barefoot now and a perfect draw. 3 Axel Rek has done alright without impressing for the day.

6 Denco's Galliano was not empty a bit behind the winner last time. Is more strong than fast and with a more offensive setup this time, he will be difficult to stop. 5 Bicc's Avalon is very consistent and good and has shown that he should be considered early in a company like this. 1 Rustico opens well and has a perfect draw, but probably shouldn't be driven in the lead. 9 Herman Hazelaar did not impress in the comeback last time, but can do better and should be on the way up with that run under his belt.

2 USMarines has got a run under his belt and has previously shown that he is good for the class. Nice draw and could lead this throughout. 6 Jackie OHS galloped shortly in the last run, but looked strong and fine as locked in over the finish line a bit behind the winner. 4 Mr Weasley has made a promising start to his career with five wins out of six starts. A scratch after the last run though and the shape is a question mark. 12 Wanderlust Pellini comes from two strong performances and should be taken seriously despite this poor draw.
