5 Epicure DE quickly got revenge last time by impressing with a nice 1.13.9 from the lead. He should have a lot of respect with him and should be seen by management with a top chance to track around. 6 Hellcopters have shown good form of late and put in a strong effort on the outside of the leader last time. If he repeats such a performance, it is not inconceivable that he will fight for victory again. 10 Manjula Fame is considerably better than the line suggests. 11 Sabani lined up the wins last winter and has V75 credentials in the bag.

4 Furst Igor is hopelessly difficult but also owns sky-high capacity. If he just sticks to the trot, he is alone on the track, but in the past he has shown that gallops can come at any time and Per Nordström will have to hold his breath until the finish. If he takes care of himself, there is a very good chance of leaving with victory. 3 Casper For Cash has completed his annual debut and should be advanced in form with a run under the belt. 1 Up Stage Them All has shown good form for a long time and is also fast out. A little lucky. 9 Ko Samui can do a lot and should approach form.

RANK

1 Willa Explosive has been drawn to suitable conditions with an inner lane and a short distance. The inside slot should hardly be a trap for the fly-footed lady who spiked from the inside slot earlier. She has been solid in this year's starts and not least recently in the Queen's Cup. 6 Countess Face knows a lot in bright moments but sometimes acts tricky. If she cares, she is given to give the tipsetta a fight. 7 Life Itself showed great talent as a two-year-old and makes an exciting debut with Gocciadoro. 3 Kitty Hawk is quick to start and used to tough opposition.

2 Caton was last out on V75 as favourite. He had a difficult race there and should not be ashamed of his effort. Before that, he has proven to be totally superior in similar contexts as now. The scenario is that he drives to the lead early on and then thunders on solo. 8 Global Dictator stands nice conditions and thrives over long distances. In a layered race, he can withstand some heavy work. 1 Goop has been positive in the last two starts and has shown a clearly improved impression. 7 Gossip Simoni was solid after a break last time.

10 Nilla Lane started promisingly with three wins in her first four starts. She showed directly in the annual debut last time that she took many steps during the winter. With a run under his belt, she is hardly worse in terms of form and is the given tipsetta. 2 Caddie Skott is capable and quick in her footwork. She is making her debut behind the starting car, but with her career's two victories from close range, it is important to make another heat to get there. 7 Landing Field has risen as a 4-year-old and has been solid in this year's two victories. 11 Ina Minute has started promisingly.

2 Tug Of War has not shown the top form he had earlier last winter when he cleaned up tough horses at Solvalla. Now it looks exciting with a perfect draw, top chance and also he is registered to compete with a American bike for the first time. 6 LonggoneRiver finished strongly as second second last to keep up clearly decently in tougher company last time. He is getting closer and closer to top form and thrives in the Yankees' wagon. 12 Utah Southwind is match against tough opponents. 7 Eagle Rock galloped away a fine position in the debut of the year.
