9 Havannah Line comes from the clearly best performance. She was completely outstanding from far behind finishing 11/800 meter. Great form! 5 Tinto Three galloped a bit unexpectedly in the final lap last time, but the trainer is pleased and this horse is used to tougher opposition. Offensive start. 4 Crazy J.Lo should be much better now and is used to tough companies. 1 Eva Aloha was really nice when winning from the lead for Lilius five starts ago.

14 Wilda Eric is a strong and tough horse that finished fast a bit behind the winner last time. Different training now, new bite, new bridle and new sulky are all positive factors. 1 Eld Messi is very blue-blooded with several siblings who are millionaires. But injuries and other problems have stopped his development. Last time he galloped on the way to victory. Early contender without a mistake. 2 Ålia Revolt followed well after a short gallop last time. 13 Vännfors Sessan met a gifted horse last time and put in a good effort.

1 Epsom Kronos was strong when he won second last. Now he is better prepared and he will run with lighter balance. Good chance with the right journey. 10 Hercules Godiva won easily last time after 13/700 meter and looked fine. Completely different conditions now but challenger. 7 Fiores Arc met too good opponents in the V75 last time but is quite speedy and Olsen sounds pleased after a short break. Could reach the front. 5 I.D. Gasolin has good speed but is making his seasonal debut.

7 Farmens Riska showed great speed resources last autumn with a couple of victories. She has been treated after the last race but is working really well according to the trainer. 9 Tekno Tana will be interesting to see from behind. Last time she was really strong after a trip from outside the leader against very strong stallions. 6 Ronja NN caused an upset in the V75 last Easter and has put in good efforts after that too. 4 Ängsfanny is speedy and will be driven by Ohlsson again. The trainer sounds very pleased.

10 Punchboard is a very capable horse that started with four straight wins. The horse is often injured but makes an exciting debut for Wäjersten. 3 Global Easy Rider is a stable companion and of course an early challenger. He followed well on the outside of the leader second last in the V86 to a close defeat. Probably early lead here. 8 Bluejeans N.Go On finished really well last time showing 11/800 meter. 5 Hotspot Simoni owns quite good speed but has got a break.

7 Money Smile is a top horse that got a short break. The horse comes well prepared, and it will be barefoot right away. In recent starts he has met the best horses of his class. Top chance here. 5 Ellis Pride found the lead despite number eight last winter and is coming from a strong win from outside the leader. Challenges for the front. 12 Excusez Moi is strong but does not always trot perfectly. 4 Take This Society is good for this class but the form is a question mark.
