4 Celerity Broline did not trot well and galloped in the lead on New Year's Eve. Not completely reliable, but has good capacity for the class. Our pick. 11 Ten O did well behind horses last time at Solvalla. A little easier this time. Can win with the right trip. 9 Kontiki Evolution was a bit fiery in the lead last time but got defeated by a good horse. Could get a nice defensive trip with this number. Early choice. 2 Luna Di Quattro is good for this company too and gets a top driver in the sulky. Possible.

2 Global Eminent has started his career strongly and easily decided the race last time. Should reach a nice position right away and is our pick. 8 Emerald Island has taken three wins in four starts this year and knows where the finish line is. Dangerous with the right trip. 12 Nova won outright in the debut for Flemming Jensen last time. Erik Adielsson in the sulky now and an early contender in the race. 5 Howitends WF had to give up from the front in a tight final battle last time. Definitely better with that race.

9 Envis is a winning horse who decided the first start of the year in a nice way from an outside position. This distance is an advantage. Our winner. 1 Prinsen Af Sola is in good shape and had been in the battle with an opening in time last Saturday. Got a perfect draw and an early challenger here. 11 Fakserling got defeated shortly before the finish last time at Färjestad but put in a good effort. Gets a defensive trip here but uses to sprint fast. 8 Ask Viktor is often in the battle. An outsider.

10 Swish The Cash scored three impressive wins in a row last winter. Now returning after a short break and has good capacity for the race. Good chance! 5 USMarines looked nice for trainer Robert Bergh during the autumn. Question mark for the form after the winter break. Nevertheless an early challenger. 4 Knut Rapid gave up after a tough journey in the V75 last time. Björn Goop now. Possibly barefoot. 2 Rarely Access sprinted okay from a back row lane last time. Could use the open stretch.

12 Doctor Gio tried to challenge Esposito last time without success. A little easier here and our pick despite a tough starting position. 3 Luca Viali Boko gave up on the home stretch in the first start of the year. Certainly better with that race and likes the distance. Challenger. 7 Denco's Galliano showed good speed on the home stretch after a defensive trip in the comeback. Can take over the lead here. Has to be considered. 1 Bold Request did not impress in the seasonal debut. Is good for this class. Can finish strongly.

3 I Am Don Max was brave from outside the leader last time. Good for this class and well drawn. He should have a good chance. 11 Wanderlust Pellini looked really nice when he won in the first start of the year. Has a lot of speed and dangerous with the right trip. 1 Mr Weasley is a quick starter and gets a good run here. Extra interesting if barefoot back. 4 Earnest has beaten somewhat easier opponents but looked nice. Tougher now, but exciting if barefoot. Contender.

1 Countess Face has good capacity and is ideally drawn in the come-back here. Is a fast starter and favorite to lead around. 2 Ultra Violet has galloped in this year's two starts, which is worrying. In terms of capacity, however, she stands up very well here. Early contender without a mistake. 8 Jurista galloped shortly after the start last time. Impressed a lot before that though. Contender. 9 NY Moet sprinted to victory in the seasonal debut and looked nice. Can win with the right trip.

1 Wishful Order looked superb from the back of the leader in the comeback last time. Now reported barefoot and with an American bike. Magnus A Djuse! Could lead this from start to finish. 2 Shejk gave up completely from the lead last time. Can of course do better than that and got a good draw. Possible back in good form. 11 Tug Of War beat good horses last time and is in top form. Dangerous with the right trip from the back until the home stretch. 8 No Talking You is in great shape but this number is tough. Possible in case of quick pace.
