Summary : FALEH (1) has been in good heart recently. With a nice second at Dieppe in mid-June on his most recent outing in his first handicap, he should be too good for his rivals despite carrying top weight. LE CENTRAL (2) takes a drop in trip, he could be the main danger as he usually travels strongly in his races over a bit further and is an interesting runner. BIG STAR (4) makes his handicap debut and if adapting to a big drop in trip he can have a say in proceedings. REMINISCE (3) has form over a bit further than today's journey in lower-grade races but should be respected.

Summary : With good form at this track over 1000m and a recent win at Dieppe in mid-June LESSLEPASSER (1) looks the logical selection. He gets the nod from PRADARO (2) who although making his seasonal debut, he should be fit for a bold show, he is versatile trip-wise. PLAIN BEAU (1) looks like the biggest rival, he has been consistent of late and has not been out of the first four in his last five runs, he has placed form at this track.
