1. MAESTRO DE BRION - A three-year-old gelding by Up And Quick out of Divine du Klau who is making his debut. Should be a threat for Mathieu Abrivard

2. MAG DES CHALIERS - A three-year-old colt by Tag Wood out of Miss des Chaliers who is making his debut. Qualified in a good time and can score

3. MARCEL SEVEN - A three-year-old by Exit Money out of Pika Josselyn who is making his debut. Watch the betting.

4. MAMBO DE LA VALLEE - Disqualified at Vincennes on 17 June. Capable of improvement, and could make the frame

5. MESSI PIERJI - Did not show much on his debut when 8th in class G at Erbray Over 2675m on 7 June. Capable of improvement and could make the frame

6. MISTER JEPFY - Not disgraced when 6th on debut in Class G at Thouars over 2725m on 9 June. Capable of improvement and could play a minor role.

7. MINUS DE CHENU - Has run well in both starts and finished 5th in Class F at Meslay-du-Maine over 2875m on 15 May. Should be right there at the finish.

8. MY DREAM DU GRAIS - Only found one better on the day when runner-up on debut in Class F at Saint-Malo over 2950m on 9 June. Big chance in this line-up

Summary: Well-bred newcomer MAG DES CHALIERS (2), closely related to smart performer Joker des Chaliers, seems ideally placed to make a winning debut. He showed promise during qualification at Meslay-du-Maine on 27 May and, on the evidence of that performance, it should pay to follow him from the outset. MAESTRO DE BRION (1), qualified in July last year, and MARCEL SEVEN (3), whose dam is a proven producer, lead the opposition ahead of MAMBO DE LA VALLEE (4), who was unlucky on debut under the saddle.

- 10. MAKITA BERRY - Has not been disgraced so far and finished 5th at Laval over 2850m on 12 June. Capable of contesting the finish

Summary: Disqualified in back-to-back outings after a winning debut, MILADY DE LA PIECE (1) needs only to prove her diligence to repay her supporters. MAJA D'OLMEN (3), a convincing winner at Strasbourg recently, will trouble the selection and expose any chinks in that rival's armor. Unexposed MALICE D'ATOUT (9) is delicate but does not lack potential, so she could challenge for a spot on the podium along with MARITZA D'ORION (2) who acquitted herself well at Saint-Malo when last seen.

Summary: LISA DE PERVENCHE (13) was disqualified (third time in 5 starts) on her reappearance but retains sufficient means to win a race like this, if avoiding another misstep. She gets the nod ahead of LIZENN SEVEN (9), who was also disappointing in her last start, and LUTTE IMPERIALE (6), who is again barefoot for the occasion. LOVE ME JULRY (10) and LUBIE ROYALE (14) are others capable of making their presence felt but must prove themselves diligent.

Summary: Delicate LOOPING AR (7) showed what he is capable of when in the mood by winning with authority at Montauban early this month and a repeat of that performance will likely suffice against this opposition. Consistent LANDSBOROUGH (5) and LET ME HOPE (8), a newcomer to Alexis Grimault's stable, have the means to make life difficult for the selection, as do stable companions LABEL JULRY (12), barefoot for the first time, and improving LYS JULRY (9).

Summary: KORTEX (8), a last-start winner on turf, recent Thouars runner-up KOKTAIL LUDOIS (10), and KLIC JULRY (12), unbeaten in this shoe-fitting, are most likely to fight out the finish. However, KADEO JOSSELYN (14) is favourably treated by the conditions so he should also acquit himself competitively. KAPORAL MARANCOURT (13), lightened in his shoeing for the first time, and barefoot duo KUNG FU FAMILY (9) and KARO DU BELET (3) come next.

Summary: Alexis Grimault holds the aces here with JUPITER PLANCHETTE (6) and JASMINE DANCER (8). Both are genuine candidates for victory and will likely play leading roles. JIPEBE (12) was rewarded for his consistency with a last-start success at Feurs and he, too, should remain competitive for a spot on the podium. I LOVE ELDE (11), judged on the performance of his 5 May win at this venue, and JIHERE DU PORET (9), provided he avoids faulting, are others with legitimate podium aspirations.

Summary: Ideally placed on the inside of the front row and in good form and physical condition, recent Royan runner-up JINGLE PASS (1) needs only to repeat his latest performance to be rewarded for his consistency. He will, however, have to thwart the likely challenge of JACK DU PONT (14), who has won twice in three associations with Tristan Ouvrie. JASMIN DE COEUR (8) and JAGUAR D'HERMES (13) are better than recent unplaced displays suggest and they could have roles to play if recapturing their best form.

16. HAKA - Disqualified in a class F at Lyon-Parilly over 2850m on 8 June. If applied, is capable of contesting the finish

Summary: IXEL DE L'AUMOY (13) wouldn't be winning out of turn so, after an encouraging last start and barefoot once again with Théo Briand at the helm, he's taken to get the better of ILTON DE BELLANDE (15), who was an unlucky 4th last time out, and hard-knockin HOUSTON D'ECAJEUL (12) whose form and experience at this level will stand him in good stead. HAKA (16), INDEX D'YVEL (10) and INVICTUS ORADEL (8) appeal most of the remainder.
